WORKMEN installing one of the eighteen automatic pin setters at the Birmingham bowling alley. The alleys were closed three days last week for the installation. Bloomfield lanes will install the automatics this summer.

Spitz Rolls High Series at Bloomfield

Jack Spitz bowled a new high three - game series at Bloomfield lanes last week with the Detroit Edison of Birmingham team.

Spitz rolled games of 214, 224 and 245 for a 683 series, a season high at Bloomfield.

Can Reach 200

Two major league pitchers can join the exclusive 200-victory club next season if they have good years. Warren Spahn of the Braves needs 17 to reach 200.

Bob Lemon of the Indians can reach the goal with 19 victories, one more than he had this year. Early Wynn reached the 200 mark this year and he and Bob Feller are the only pitchers now active who have won 200 or more games. Wynn has 201, Feller 266.

Easy for Burglars

Baltimore, Md.—The burglar or burglars, who recently took $607 from the cash register of a tavern here, had an easy time of it. The tavern operator told police he inadvertently left the door of his place open when he left about 2 a.m. leaving $607 in the register. The next morning the $607 was gone.

No Harm Meant

Seattle, Wash.—Police traced the flight of a mystery bullet which crashed through a window and lodged in the ceiling of an office on the 33rd floor of Seattle's tallest building. They reckoned the bullet came from the county-city building, where the sheriff's office is located. That solved it. A detective had been cleaning his pistol and it fired. However, there's to be no more weapon-cleaning in that office in the future.
