

ALONG WITH HUNDREDS of other cub and den mothers participating in this week's collection of white material for the American Cancer Society are Mrs. Robert King, mother of pack 22, Den 4 of Adams school, David Pomeroy, John Brown and Bob King. The drive which began Sunday will continue through the 10th and is the society's only means of collecting the white cloth used for making cancer pads. Mrs. Helen Stevenson of Birmingham, chairman of the drive for South Oakland County, states material can be left at the Detroit Edison by the public from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., daily.

National Officer Reads Proclamation Of Founders Day

A musical will follow the Founders Day dinner for Delta Omicron, national professional music fraternity, scheduled for Dec. 13 at Dev. Martz, of Detroit will be on hand to read her official proclamation of Founders Day. Dr. Martz is just completing her second term as president of Delta Omicron and was recently elected national president of the professional Panhellenic association. Five chapters from Wayne and Oakland county will be represented.

The first Christmas cards are beginning to trickle through the mails, and the small white envelopes with their lids — "You are invited . . ." are making their appearance.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mayes extended the warmest of seasonal greetings to their friends when they entertained 110 guests at cocktails in their home on Lane Lake road last Sunday.

Newest residents in Lone Pine Village are Norman and Mary Schade of 4960 Ranch lane. The Schades have one married daughter, Marilyn Black, 20, who is living with her parents while her husband, Bill, is doing naval duty on the carrier Yorktown, in the Pacific. Marilyn was a journalism major in college and worked for a time for a Dearborn newspaper. The Schades, who are formerly from Dearborn, like to fish and own a terrier called "Pema." Schade, who is active in the Drugists' Association, owns a pharmacy in Dearborn.

CUB SCOUTS

Cub scouts, Dec. 13, put on a Christmas show last Tuesday at their pack meeting. The past week was spent in painting sleigh and reindeer (and it must be admitted there was a mom or two also swinging a paint brush). The boys have been making ornaments and selling them in order to purchase son home over in Charnwood.

Bob Winterhalter, son of the James Winterhalters of Lahser road, is taking social dancing at Barbara Seaver's studio on Maple road. Bob goes to the studio on Wednesdays.
Diane York, daughter of the Hayward Yorks of Lahser road, celebrates her sixth birthday on Dec. 21.

Frank and Jane Martin's young son celebrated his ninth birthday on Dec. 7. There was a family party in the Martin home on Lahser.

Mrs. Herbert Carr, Maple road, has along with the task of Yuletide shopping, preparations for the marriage of her daughter, Audrey Grendahl, whose Dec. 31 wedding will take place at the Kirk-of-the-Hills.

Miss Grendahl just returned from Upper Montclair, N. J., where parents of her fiancé, Tom Kuhn, introduced her to their eastern friends.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.
