Many Friends Attend Cocktail Party at Rex A. Terry Home

Holiday festivities are starting early in the village. Last Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Rex A. Terry of Waddington road entertained a large number of their friends for cocktails.

Guests included many people from Grand Pointe as well as Birmingham. Those from the village included Mr. and Mrs. Julian Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil LaMar, Mr. and Mrs. George Lamb, Mr. and Mrs. Cockett Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Stoward, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Woods and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Field.

A cocktail and dinner party in honor of Cass Peterson and John Raso, who are to be married, was given by Mr. and Mrs. Julian Wilson in their Waddington home last Wednesday evening. Among the guests were Mary Lawson, Richard Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. James Jenkin, and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Ayers.

Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Green gave a dinner party for their many neighbors in their Rugg Cross road home one evening last week.

A tea was given Sunday in the home of Mrs. Paul Hyman of Yarmouth road for the St. Mary's Alumni of Monroe. Mrs. Stewart Hanky, mother of Mrs. Hyman, was here from her home in Ann Arbor for the occasion. Among the many villagers who attended were Richard Schroeter, Mrs. Glenn Payne and Mrs. Hanes Dawson.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Caldwell of Tuckahoe road, with their son Richard and daughter Jean, spent Thanksgiving in Richmond. With Mrs. Caldwell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Thompson. There was cause for a double celebration as the Thompsons celebrated their golden anniversary by entertaining some 200 guests at a reception in their home.

Mrs. N. J. Rakas entertained at a coffee in her home on Glengary road last Wednesday morning for members of the book sale board of the A.M.W. Mrs. Rakas was the 1955 chairman of the board while Mrs. John Judd has been chosen chairman for 1956.

Mrs. William Milligan, Mrs. Gerald Ivant, Mrs. D. H. Goodfellow, Mrs. A. S. Budd, Mrs. E. J. Conway, Mrs. Herriem Rethum, Mrs. J. H. Wagner, Mrs. C. L. Theahald and Mrs. T. J. LaFontaine were among those present.

Mr. and Mrs. West H. Gallagher of Woodale court welcomed home intending to remain here in the north. His daughter Barbara will visit her father, grandmother and aunt while on her Christmas vacation from her studies at Florida State University.

Murray Stewart, Bob Spencer and Paul Wilson were among the boys who traveled to Metamora last weekend to the D-B-A-A rally with other members of Scout Troop 81 of the Presbyterian church.

GIRL SCOUT PARTY

Girl Scout Troop 811 gave a party at the Bloomfield village home last Tuesday in the multipurpose room for their mothers and their fifth grade teachers. The girls not only decorated the tables for the party but served the refreshments as well.

A special guest was Mrs. Hall who at one time was the girls' Brookside leader before they progressed into scouting. Mrs. Beeber showed slides of her rounds the short trip which was in relationship to the troops work on proficiency badges. One of the requirements for a second class badge is a knowledge of international friendship.

Cranbrook Show And Sale Open

Cranbrook Academy of Art opened its annual Christmas exhibition and sale of student work last Friday, continuing through December 11. The show is open from 2 until 5 p.m. daily.

Featured in the exhibit are jewelry, pots, textiles, furniture, paintings, sculpture and Christmas cards for sale, displayed in the South Gallery.

"Education of the Eye," an experimental exhibition juxtaposing the very old and the very new to suggest the inherent relationships in art, independent of time, place or culture is displayed in the main gallery. Presentation in the lower gallery are human interest news-photographs.

Are you thinking of buying a new home? Then read the "For Sale - Houses" column on the Classified Ad page of this week's Eccentric.

Mrs. Paul Jackson, and Mrs. Robert Morrison presented "World peace" as gifts to the girls. The girls then entertained their guests with a program of songs.
