

MRS. JON BARRIE ROGERS

Barbara Rosborough Weds Jon B. Rogers

Christ church, Cranbrook, was the scene of the Dec. 2 evening wedding of Barbara Rosborough and Lieut. Jon Barrie Rogers. Rev. Perry Williams officiated and a reception at Oakland Hills Country club followed the ceremony.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Alfred James Rosborough, 542 Pilgrim road, Birmingham. The groom's parents are the James Dwight Rogers, 633 North Woodland, Birmingham.

Barbara wore an original of white spun de soie cut with an empire bodice, short sleeves and princess line, with appliques of hand-embroidered lace in panel motif and cathedral train. Her two-tiered fingertip veil of silk illusion was caught in a fitted cap of striped silk illusion with matching lace. Her bouquet was of lilies-of-the-valley and stephanotis, centered with white orchid.

MRS. ALFRED JAMES ROSBOROUGH, Jr., the matron of honor was in Dior blue silk taffeta with portrait neckline, fitted bodice, bracelet-length sleeves and bouffant waist-length skirt. She carried pink carnations and wore more of them in her hair.

Bridesmaids wore Mrs. Jay Van Dyke, Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. Robert Ekins, Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. Gordon Shira, Exeter, Mass.; Kathie Ojberg, Boston, Mass.; Barbara Stauffer, Birmingham, and Mrs. Robert Mears, Cleveland, O., sister of the groom. Their gowns were the same as that of the honor matron except that white carnations were carried and worn in the hair.

Charles Werhane, Lake Forest, Ill., was Jon's best man and Alfred J. Rosborough, Jr., Craig Ackerman, Howard Livermore, Robert Hardy, all of Birmingham; Gordon Shira, Leominster, Mass., and Robert Mears, Cleveland, O., served as ushers.

Mrs. Rosborough chose a dress of apricot silk taffeta for her daughter's wedding with which she wore a matching headband and green velvet. The groom's mother was in oyster white broadened satin with a garnet belt and matching corsage of lilies.

AS THE newlyweds left for a wedding trip to New York city, the bride wore a brown leather tweed suit with velvet collar, velvet hat and brown accessories under a mink coat. After their honeymoon, the Rogers will live in Germany.
