

Cornelius Harper, Jr. Wed to Anne H. Micou

Cornelius Mark Harper, Jr. took Anne Herbert Micou as his bride in a November wedding in Scarsdale, New York. Mrs. Harper is the daughter of Mrs. F. Roosevelt MacMurry Micou of Scarsdale and the late Mr. Micou. Parents of the groom are the Harpers, Sr. of Birmingham. The Rev. Dr. Howard Anderson, performed the ceremony in the Congregational church, Scarsdale, and the reception took place at the Woman's club there.

The bride's maid, Hilary Herbert Micou of Grosse Pointe, presented her in marriage; Roswitha Micou was her sister's maid of honor and the attendants were Mrs. Gordon Cropper Winston, Sarah Alexander and Patsy Malone. Richard Foster was best man and John Elton, John Waulbach and Gordon Winston acted as ushers.

IVORY SATIN fashioned the bride's gown, made with a train. With it she wore a sash of cup and veil and a bouquet of white orchids. Like the valley in a chapel, she was.

Her attendants were gowned alike in dresses of a soft material and carried ivory bouquets in autumn hues.

Mrs. Harper, Sr. chose a beauteous dress with which she wore a crown hat, while Mrs. Micou was in accord with a brown bag. Both mother and bride wore brown crepe accessories.

A graduate of South college, class of '31, the bride is a member of Scarsdale Junior League. Her groom graduated from Grosse Pointe school and attended University of Michigan and Wayne university. Presently, he works with Waling, Lecher, investment bankers, Detroit.
