

Boss Fires Woman Who Ran Red Light, Then Marries Her

(Continued from Page 1, Sec. 5) ... ing which time he prosecuted ...

Andes and Brown law firm since 1935. Andes has held several administrative and supervisory positions in private industry, as a director in several corporations. He enlisted in the army shortly after the attack on Pearl Harbor but was released by the army at the request of the National War Labor Board to serve as public panel chairman ...

possibility of large tax increases. "It is expected that the community will continue to grow and it now for a number of years. After that, if and when additional taxes are wanted for the money the government will provide them. In the meantime, we will have been able to keep the boundary lines intact," said Christensen.

THOMAS M. COSTELLO, 27466 Lexington Parkway, is married and has two children. Graduate of University of Detroit where he was a football captain, Costello is an Air Force veteran. A practicing attorney in Oakland and Wayne counties, he is serving on the legislative committee of the Detroit Bar Association, is active in Cambridge League, Post 605, and St. Rose's Church.

ing changes and other major developments. "I feel that my work with civic-minded groups, associations, and people is even more important in becoming aware of the needs of the residents of Southfield. Since I am over 30 I prefer to accept the responsibilities of a public servant at this time because in later years I may lack the additional energy and vitality required for these additional and time-consuming duties. I will endeavor to help make Southfield a happier place for hamlet residents," Melnar concluded.

STEPHEN T. ONDERKO, 6027 Parkside, is married and has two children. A graduate attorney, Onderko, who attended the University of Michigan and University of Detroit, also has education in engineering and business administration. World War II veteran, he served in the South Pacific in counter-intelligence.

Justice Edward A. Earsley (center) pronounces sentence for running red light. Betty Dvorin (right) was held immediately after wedding ceremony. Patrolman Stanley R. Steinke, (right) who arrested her, looks on. Earsley paid the $10 fine and costs as a wedding present.

SOUTHFIELD—An interior decorator lost her job Nov. 16 when she ran a red light and married an appointment which stopped by police.

BRIDE Betty Dvorin listens as Southfield Justice Edward A. Earsley (center) pronounces sentence for running red light. Betty Dvorin (right) was held immediately after wedding ceremony. Patrolman Stanley R. Steinke, (right) who arrested her, looks on. Earsley paid the $10 fine and costs as a wedding present.

Following the wedding ceremony, Earsley held justice court, found the bride guilty of speeding and fined her $10 and $500, which she paid. Dvorin has her own taxicab as a wedding present. Patrolman Steinke acted as a witness in the ceremony also.

DAN CUMID was played by Southfield Patrolman Stanley R. Steinke who was arrested. Miss Mayo, who was arrested as a witness at the wedding, was performed Friday night by Justice Justice Edward A. Earsley at his home, 31700 Eastlake. The bride's mother, Mrs. Iveline Thompson, who lives in New York City for the ceremony, was a witness at the wedding.

HUGH G. ALBERTON, JR., of 4615 Hudson, is married and has two children. A graduate of Michigan State University, Alberton is serving a second term as township treasurer. He was chairman of the charter commission. He is a delegate to the Michigan State Bar Association and president of Beverly Hills Association.

Continuing to retain suburban characteristics of the area. 2. Long range plans for public playgrounds, parks, sewer, street and highway construction in order to later avoid expensive condemnations of public property for these uses. 3. No increase in taxes, except those necessary for proper administration of city affairs and safeguarding of public interests, or when desired by the people through an elected body for additional or extended services.

WILLIAM H. DALRYMPLE, 29150 Inkster, is 47, married and has five children. A Southfield resident since 1942, he graduated from High School and was cub master of the Cub Pack B-9 at the High School and was cub master of the Pack B-9 at the High School. He is a newcomer to Southfield.

WESLEY J. SKOWRON, 3715 West 6th Street, is married and has six children. He is employed with a Detroit firm as a maintenance man and has resided in Southfield eight years. He holds the office of constable in Southfield because I feel it is my duty to be of service to the community and to the people of Southfield. He is a member of the local fire department and is a member of the Southfield Golf and Country Club.

LUTHER WAGNER, 39, is married and has three children. He has resided at 2458 1/2 Martha Washington Drive for three and one-half years. A development engineer for U.S. Rubber Co., Wagner has served on the township board for two years and favors incorporation of Southfield. He is a member of the local fire department and is a member of the Southfield Golf and Country Club.

WESLEY J. SKOWRON, 3715 West 6th Street, is married and has six children. He is employed with a Detroit firm as a maintenance man and has resided in Southfield eight years. He holds the office of constable in Southfield because I feel it is my duty to be of service to the community and to the people of Southfield. He is a member of the local fire department and is a member of the Southfield Golf and Country Club.

LUTHER WAGNER, 39, is married and has three children. He has resided at 2458 1/2 Martha Washington Drive for three and one-half years. A development engineer for U.S. Rubber Co., Wagner has served on the township board for two years and favors incorporation of Southfield. He is a member of the local fire department and is a member of the Southfield Golf and Country Club.

Order Now For Christmas Turkeys. Given dressed, gift boxed. U.S. Government Graded Double Breast Bronze. TOM TURKEYS 19-25 Pounds. BEN TURKEYS 10-15 Pounds.

ROY E. ANDES, 50, of 31700 Verona Circle, built his home in Southfield in Sept., 1920. He attended Wayne University and graduated from the Detroit College of Law in 1931, and has practiced in Southern Michigan for over 20 years. Andes, who has engaged in an practice of criminal law, has been a member of the Fitch, Hayes, EMANUEL CHRISTENSEN, 63, of 17150 Cornell, has owned and operated his own insurance business in Detroit for more than 25 years, and has lived in Southfield for 27 years. A widower, he has a married child, son, Dan W. L. Christensen of Royal Oak, and daughter, Mrs. Richard Taylor of Southfield. Christensen is a member of the Southfield charter planning commission.

HERM A. DORFMAN, 34, lives with his wife and two children at 21246 Greenview. A practicing certified public accountant, he has lived at his present address for more than five years, and has been in public accounting for the past 14 years.

MRS. MARGARET ELIZABETH MOLNAR, 25522 Rouge Court, lists herself as a teacher, mother and homemaker in Southfield township. She has a bachelor of arts and master of science degrees. Mrs. Molnar is a member of Southfield Township Civic Association, which her husband heads, a member of P.T.S. of Southfield High School, Southfield Federated Association, Southfield Citizens League, and Regwood Regency Club Improvement Association.

DONALD L. SWANSON, 35, of 24068 Pennsylvania Drive, is married and has four children. He is general manager of the Michigan State Fair. Swanson holds a master's degree in educational administration from Wayne University. He was a legislative candidate for the Fourth District in 1954, and is a Southfield charter committee member.

Order Now For Christmas Turkeys. Given dressed, gift boxed. U.S. Government Graded Double Breast Bronze. TOM TURKEYS 19-25 Pounds. BEN TURKEYS 10-15 Pounds.

Order Now For Christmas Turkeys. Given dressed, gift boxed. U.S. Government Graded Double Breast Bronze. TOM TURKEYS 19-25 Pounds. BEN TURKEYS 10-15 Pounds.

Order Now For Christmas Turkeys. Given dressed, gift boxed. U.S. Government Graded Double Breast Bronze. TOM TURKEYS 19-25 Pounds. BEN TURKEYS 10-15 Pounds.

Dear Homeowner: What sells a HOUSE? Knowledge of "Comparative Sales," intelligent well-planned advertising, construction costs, financing methods, Real Estate trends, Experience in handling prospective buyers.

CHAMBERLAIN CO. Let me close by thanking you again for giving our company the listing on your home. Your trust and confidence is heart felt. We won't let you down. Sincerely, Cal Chamberlain

CHAMBERLAIN CO. Member Birmingham Real Estate Board 420 S. Woodward, B'ham MI 4-1500

CHAMBERLAIN CO. Member Birmingham Real Estate Board 420 S. Woodward, B'ham MI 4-1500

CHAMBERLAIN CO. Member Birmingham Real Estate Board 420 S. Woodward, B'ham MI 4-1500

Advertisement for Larro Research Farm. Features a large house with a porch, surrounded by trees. Text includes 'One Floor Two Story', 'In The Country Inside Town', and pricing information for $39,720 and $31,750. Max Brook Inc. Realtors.

Advertisement for Chamberlain Co. Real Estate. Text includes 'Walking Distance to Commuter In "Old" Birmingham', 'A SMALLER HOME ON A LARGER LOT. 1100 x 148', and '3 bedrooms, fireplace in living room. 15x12 screened porch. Carage. Gas heat. Fenced yard. Recreation room in basement. Owner anxious to move.' Price $20,250.