

Valley Woods
 Jean Kittle MI 6-1766
 Marge Deuel MI 6-4376

Mrs. John Villa of Plumwood lane was the honored guest last Friday at a surprise stork shower and luncheon at Mrs. Kenneth Kittle's home on Westlady road.

She had been requested to attend a "community paper session" which was completely taken by surprise.

Those attending were Mrs. William Harris, Westlady road, Mrs. Charles Shull of Bellevue Trail, Mrs. John Tesmar and Mrs. Charles Deuel of Eastlady road, Mrs. Michael Gilme of Forest lane and Mrs. Werner Guenther of Plumwood lane.

Adding to the fun was the pot luck dishes brought by everyone including the honored guest. In keeping with the occasion the tables were set with centerpieces of miniature rattles and diapers hanging from white branches set in milk glass.

CHRISTMAS FUN
 Combining business with pleasure the committee for the "Christmas Fun Night" for the residents of the Valley Woods area met at the Bill Harris home on Westlady road.

Plans got under way for the coming event to be held on Friday, Dec. 16 at the Beverly school.

Present were the Al Hartmann, Bert and Jean Gatward, Mrs. Kenneth Bond, Chet and Danette Saylor and John Villa.

Brownie Troop 673 are busy working on their Christmas cards for their mothers and dads. Mrs. Bert Gatward of Bellevue Trail, leader, and Mrs. J. W. Duhn, co-

Lathrupites Back Council In Fight With Gas Firms

LATHRUP—A standing vote by about 120 persons showed councilmen Friday, that those at the meeting to discuss gasoline law suit costs at Lathrup school, were strongly opposed to the stations and wanted the suits continued.

Three persons, including Mrs. Charles D. (Louise Lathrup) Kelly, stood up against spending any more than the $7,500 expended in battling Highland Oil Co. in Oakland County Circuit Court.

Judge Frank L. Doty ruled against the city, and City Attorney Everett F. Hayes predicted it would cost another $3,500 to carry an appeal through Supreme Court. He was authorized $1,500 in legal fees Monday by council.

TEEN CLUB
 A Teen Club open to 7th and 8th grade students in the Valley Woods area is planning its first affair. Mrs. John Gallion of Bellevue Trail is heading a group of mothers in the area, who will help the "teen set" to get organized.

Mrs. and Mrs. Robert Groves of Hamstead road will open their home for the first meeting of Dec. 10 at 7:30 p.m. after the committee meeting at Mrs. Gallion's home more definite plans will be announced.

The Charles Deuels of Eastlady road, celebrated Chuckie's fourth birthday, Sunday. Chuckie's mother entertained 16 guests at dinner for the occasion.

Birthday gifts were cars, cars and more cars. Even the big cake was decorated with letter faces. Ask Chuckie what he wants Santa Claus to bring him? That's right, CARS.

chases from the oil companies by Albert M. Cattell of 19041 Bungalow, who said the three companies "are in this together..." to restricting sales on Sunday to harass the companies.

Ladies' Night Set For S'fld Kiwanis

SOUTHFIELD — Ladies' Night for Southfield Kiwanis is planned next Wednesday, Dec. 14 at Devon Gables, 6:45 p.m.

At last week's meeting, Capt. J. Olson, U. S. Army, who is speaker. He presented a motion picture film on guided missiles and explained to Kiwanis members the part these guided missiles have in our national defense. New members inducted into the Southfield Kiwanis are John Olson and Jim Hobson. Looking for a pet for the children? See the Classified columns under "Pets for Sale."

Get Your Community News In The Birmingham Eccentric On Sale . . .

EAST BEVERLY Wesley's Drug	100 West 14 Mile
FRANKLIN Leslie's Cleaners	32716 Franklin Road
GILBERT LAKE Fraser's Mkt.	6475 Telegraph
WALNUT LAKE Morris' Lunch	Inkster & Walnut Lake Road
SOUTHFIELD Pete's Mkt. Pete's Soft Drink Ten-Tel Mkt. Southfield Twp. Hall	28911 Southfield Southfield & 12 Mile 25017 Telegraph Berg Rd. & 10 1/2 Mile

OR SUBSCRIBE NOW

Trial Offer, 4 Months	$1.00
1 Year	$3.00

Name _____
 Street _____
 Zone _____ City _____
 One Year  4 Mos.  Check Enclosed
 8-55  Send Invoice

Spode Indian Tree

THE symbolic Indian Tree of Life is painted in Chinese lacquer red, enlivened by two bands of lustre. In color and design it is as appropriate with Modern as with the Georgian settings with which it was first used. Other pieces available.

FIVE-PIECE Place Setting $13.00

La Belles

137 West Maple
 Birmingham's Shop of Books, Stationery & Gifts

Lathrup Village

Dorothy Zarell EL 6-2039 Mildred Caddell EL 6-9645

Jean Norton, daughter of the Dang Nortons, Bloomfield road, and Linda Taggart, daughter of the Holley Taggarts, San Jose, were chosen to take an extra part in the finale of the Sudler's Wells Ballet production "Fire Bird" at Masonic Temple. They appeared Saturday, Dec. 3, at the matinee and evening performances.

It was a walk-out part for the girls but they thrilled to the wonderful experience of being on stage with such talented dancers. In their beautiful costumes and to the opportunity of seeing prima ballerina, Margot Fonteyn, dance.

Jean, upon being paid for her appearance with the Ballet said, "I'll never spend THAT money. I'm going to FRAME IT!"

Judge E. Miles Norton and Mrs. Norton of Green Point Inn, spent last weekend with their son and daughter-in-law, the Dana M. Nortons, and on Saturday evening saw the Ballet and Jean's appearance in the finale.

The family motored to East Lansing Sunday afternoon, where they were guests of Nancy Norton at a tea in Gilbert Hall. Nancy is a freshman at Michigan State University.

Despite inclement weather, the Holiday Fair of the Women's Association of the Community Church, Congregational last Saturday, proved a huge success according to fair chairman who report a profit to date in excess of $1200. The pony rides, project of the CYFs at the Fair, were cancelled due to the weather. They will be held at a later date.

Congratulations to Mary Ann Stahl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Steilman, Margate, who celebrated her 18th birthday last Sunday. The Steilmans' wish, son, Michael and the Peter Kastanon and daughter, Judy, Detroit, drove

Christmas Activities Keep Scouts Busy

FRANKLIN—Fifth grade intermediate Girl Scouts have invited their mothers to a Christmas tea planned for next Thursday afternoon in the social room of the community church. Each girl is to present her mother with a hand-made gift. The troop will disband for the holidays, resuming activities Jan. 9.

Sixth grade intermediate Scouts Troop 340, who have been busy working on hobby horses for presentation to needy children, will take a holiday vacation from their activities from Dec. 14 until Wednesday, Jan. 4.

Third grade Brownie Troop 248 will meet for the last time this year next Tuesday, resuming activities Jan. 3. The girls have been making Christmas decorations of pine cones and pipe-cleaner angels.

Members of other third grade Brownie Troop 366, who have been making Christmas gifts for their parents, will disband over the holidays, meeting next Monday and then not until Jan. 9.

Sip and Chat Party

WEST BEVERLY—The Hectess club of West Beverly Hills is giving another "sip and chat" party at the Birmingham Country club on Sunday, Dec. 11 from 4 to 6 p.m. Newcomers in the area will have the opportunity to meet their neighbors. Tickets may be obtained either from the block hostesses or from Mrs. B. John Mitchell, 18184 Kinross.

We Heard It Said By:

THOMAS MYERS, president of Southfield Kiwanis: "Wives of Kiwanis members had better remind their husbands to make those reservations for Ladies' Night next week. He will probably forget to do it unless you prod him."

Gow's Little Acre

You've heard about the man who has everything?
 Have you ever seen our shop?
 We think we have everything!

Do you know about Persian Donkey Beds—or French Lemon Peels?
 These are gifts for a man or woman who has everything.

THOSE CHRISTMAS CARDS!
 Orders taken till Dec. 10th—or later if you insist.

GOW'S LITTLE ACRE
 Livernot & Square Lake Rd
 Troy, Mich
 MUlberry 9-1035
 OPEN SUNDAYS

"Prince" Chatmon Faces S'fld Justice

SOUTHFIELD — Clifton Chatmon, 28, of Ferrdale, "Prince" Chatmon Prodigal Jones' Universal Triumph — The Dominion of God Church, almost went to jail for speeding and not having a driver's license when arraigned Saturday before Township Judge Edward A. Elsarrelli.

Chatmon told Elsarrelli that the Lord had come to him in a dream Friday night and told him to have $20 Saturday or he was going to jail.

Arrested Nov. 16 by Township Patrolman J. W. Reed on North-western between 3 and 10 Mile roads for driving 50 to 55 miles zone, Chatmon was fined $10 and $5 costs or three days in jail for not having a driver's license. He also was fined $5 costs and two days for speeding.

Prophet Jones evidently turned his back on Chatmon when he called for the money, said Elsarrelli, but Chatmon did finally locate the money and paid his fine. "He almost went to jail," said Elsarrelli.

B-17 First Class Scouts Are Honored

BLOOMFIELD — First Class Scouts from B-17, Kids in the Hills troop, honored at Recognition Day ceremonies at State Fair College, were Don Riley, Dan Jackson, Dave Sanborn and Doug Watson.

Others from the troop were Paul Hellenberg, Brian Morris, Doug Hoag, Russ Jukola, Philip Berk and Bruce Geyman. Color guards serving from this troop were Ricky Clark, Dennis Alva, Bobby Clark and James Chamberlain.

Child Hurt in Fall

BLOOMFIELD — Two-year-old Michael Martin, son of the Frank Martins of Lahser road, suffered a brain concussion and broken collar bone when he fell from his crib last week. The child was treated at Henry Ford hospital.

Who Is Against This Charter? HENRY DeMEYER IS.

Recognized as leader of Southfield citizens opposing this bad charter. A present Township Trustee, DeMeyer is a fighter for good government.

Vote For DeMEYER As Your Choice FOR CITY COUNCIL

OPPOSED TO THE CHARTER? GOOD! But You Must Protect Your Rights!

You must dismiss the present Charter Commission. A New Charter Commission must be elected to determine the future of Southfield.

You must vote for Council candidates opposed to the charter

STUDY THIS NEWSPAPER ★ PICK YOUR CANDIDATES WITH THIS IN MIND.

The Councilman who receives the most votes will be Defacto Mayor when the charter is defeated. This man will be responsible for setting the machinery in motion to elect a new Charter Commission.

VOTE NO MONDAY!

CITIZENS FOR SOUTHFIELD TOWNSHIP
 Marvin R. Marsh, Pres.
 T. J. LaFontaine, Secy.
 Robert B. Reed, Treas.

This advertisement paid for by contributions to Citizens for Southfield Township.