Gifts Wrapped For Yule Party By Chi Omegas

Toys carefully selected for the needs of the children are being individually wrapped for the annual Christmas party of the Oakland County Society for Crippled Children. Alpha Chi Omegas will collaborate with other groups in entertaining over 300 children on Dec. 14.

The project of buying and wrapping the gifts was handled by Mrs. William Haas, assisted by Mrs. Maxwell Doerr, Mrs. Robert Glenn, representative from Alpha Omega alumnae chapter of Alpha Chi Omega on the Crippled Children's board, with a committee from the group will help in transporting children as well as assisting at the party.

Presiding the wrapping party at Tuesday's meeting, Dr. Thelma James, Wayne university professor, spoke to the AOA chapter at the home of Mrs. Charles White.

Committee members for the meeting were Mrs. Chester Babel, Mrs. Harold Heym and Mrs. Florence Miller. Mrs. Haas had charge of the refreshments.

Wessel Honors Young Musicians

Twenty of Mack Wessel, young pianist, will play for an evening at the Orchard Lane studio at 4111 Broadway, Dec. 11.

Wessel states that in all his career as a pianist, composer and teacher, he has not met with a more admirable group. Wessel is a nationally known composer, pianist and teacher, and the recipient of the Guggenheimer and Pulitzer award. His compositions have been performed by leading orchestras here and abroad.
