

Debate, Spanish Club, Make B'ham High News

Feliz Navidad, todo el mundo or Merry Christmas, every one, are the good tidings that the Birmingham high school Spanish club will spread in the next few weeks.

The group has been practicing Christmas carols for the traditional holiday program at the Green Lake Convalescent home in Bloomfield Hills.

To do this takes many boys. Running the press are Fred Modale, Ted Wroble, John Walker, Harvey Smith, Doug O'Camb, Roger Hawkins, and Bob Hall.

The organization is learning such familiar songs as "Dance Halls," "Silent Night," and "The First Noel" in Spanish.

Highlander are Darl Dunn, Ron McCrumb, Ed Handley, Donas Leames, John Rutledge, and Jim Zimmerman.

After the entertainment the club will return to the high school for a Spanish Christmas party, consisting of a game, a Spanish grab bag, and refreshments.

Celebrating the fourteenth anniversary of the national Civil Air Patrol, Birmingham's cadet squad will give an open house and program in connection with the Mail room at the high school last week.

Under general chairmanship of Shown Kay, the committees are refreshments, Sylvia Kordofoski and Lydia Carley, fruit basket, Janet Siefert, transportation, Roberts Wood, and tree decoration, Colin Stewart.

The negative team of George Ithia and Joyce Kerley won the decision, while the affirmative squad consisting of Terry Rogers and Gary Reynolds lost in a close battle to Ann Arbor's negative.

A group from the Keynotes club entertained the Birmingham Women's club last Tuesday at 1:30 at the Community house. Performing were Sally Satterthwaite, piano; Nellie Dale Garabrant, soprano-soloist; Don Ritter, violin obligato; Sue Rippington, flute-obligato; and Steven Taylor, accompanist.

Cadet privates, promoted to corporals are George Fosse, Martha Kaskin, and Madelyn Roberts. Cadet corporals Pat Cornell and Shirley Oliver were made cadet sergeants.

In their first state league debate of the season, Birmingham's debate team split a decision with Ann Arbor high school.

New duties were assigned to the cadets.

The affirmative team of George Ithia and Joyce Kerley won the decision, while the negative team consisting of Terry Rogers and Gary Reynolds lost in a close battle to Ann Arbor's negative.

Fifteen members of Future Teachers' club have accepted invitations extended by the Future Teachers of Rochester to a party tonight in Rochester.

The state question this year is "Resolved that the federal government should guarantee a higher education to all qualified high school graduates through grants to colleges and universities."

A demonstration of elementary school teaching methods will be given for Future Teachers' club at next Monday's meeting. The girls will be taught how to make jewelry. Barbara Ritter, program chairman, arranged the demonstration.

The high school print shop does many things besides printing school forms and running special jobs. It sets up Highlander ads and runs off the slip-sheet on the offset printing press.
