

MYLEEN MERRILL LEN DRESSLAR

Music Guild Program Featuring Vocalists

Two young singers will be featured at the Feb. 13 program of Cranbrook Music Guild.

Myleen Merrill, soprano, and Len Dresslar, bass-baritone, will be accompanied by Robert Howard who will also present several piano pieces.

Miss Merrill entered the concert field last fall after having already established herself on radio and television.

The two parts of her program will include numbers by Schubert and Brahms and contemporary composers.

DRESSLER MADE his debut 21 years ago at the age of 8, and has enjoyed a steady popularity since then. He is well known in concert and opera, radio and television.

A winner of the Godfrey Talent show award, he was a "find" of Roberts and Hammerstein and was featured in "South Pacific" for three years.

Following the 4 p.m. program, a coffee hour will be held in charge of Mrs. Edward S. Reid, Jr., with Mrs. George W. David and Mrs. Robert W. Halstead pouring.

Mrs. Martin D. Archangel, chairman, is assisted by Mrs. Robert P. Nevel, Miss Mary Buich, Mrs. E. A. Proctor, Mrs. William J. Bird and Mrs. Walter T. Bromley.

Gilbert Lake FANNIE ATEN MI 4-7157

Junior Class Skates After Jeep Clears Away New-Fallen Snow

Mary Welsh entertained 35 members of the Junior class of Bloomfield Hills High school at her annual skating party and dinner at her home Friday afternoon and evening, Feb. 4. The group came directly from school at 3:30, to have ample time to skate on Gilbert Lake before their buffet dinner which was served in the downstairs recreation room.

Mary's skating party had been planned well in advance and clear weather and ice was the hope of all the class. The weatherman cooperated and Feb. 4 was a perfect winter day—no snow, no rain, and snow from a recent "fall" covered the ice.

Snow-covered ice is no problem, however, when Sam Reeve, of Gilbert Lake road, is a neighbor. Sam sent his jeep from his estate at Maple and Telegraph and Mary had a skating rink in short order.

Mary's class, the juniors at Bloomfield High, will be the first to graduate from the new high school in the fall. Mary is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Welsh of Gilbert Lake drive.

Mrs. Walter Forsyth, of Rochester, N. Y., has entertained her sister, Mrs. Elmer L. Sylvester, Snowshoe Circle, for the past week. Friday, Feb. 4, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester and Mrs. Forsyth drove to Columbus, Ohio, for the weekend to visit the Sylvester's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Little.

Mrs. John W. Crim, with daughters Cindy and Martha, returned to her home in Elma, N. Y., Tuesday, Feb. 8. Mr. Crim is presently visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin M. Beresford, of Cottonville Lane, for the past six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Todd, 3955 Quanton road, entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brown at dinner at Retlands Inn, Tuesday evening, Feb. 1. After dinner the Todds enjoyed an evening of bridge playing at the Browns' home at 3875 Quanton.

WELCOME NEIGHBORS
Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Leonard C. VanBoven, who moved into their new home at 6645 Meadow Wood about two weeks ago, from Ferndale.

The VanBovens have a married daughter, Mrs. Charles Jenne, who lives in Royal Oak, a daughter, Gretchen, 15, in the eighth grade at Vaughn, and two sons, Charles and Sam, Charles is in the finance department of the Army, stationed at Camp Irwin, in Barstow, Calif. Sam has recently finished four years in the United States Air Force. He spent one year of his time in Morocco and three months in England. Sam is now enrolled in Albion College, at Albion, Mich., in pre-law.

VanBoven is with the advertising firm of Walker and Co.

South Miller Way residents are welcoming Mr. and Mrs. Harold Longdyke and their four children, Harold, Jr., Mary, Joann and Doreen who came to their new home about two weeks ago from Detroit. Longdyke is a hardware merchant in Berkeley and a member of the Lions club.

Harold, Jr., attends Highland Park high school, Mary, who attends Bloomfield Hills high school, enjoys adding to her stamp collection.

The George A. Dungans moved into their new home at 3955 Cottonville lane, Wednesday, Feb. 2. They formerly lived in Beverly Hills, Royal Oak.

The Dungans have two children, George E., 7 years, and Susan S. Dungan is manager of the Detroit Insurance agency in the Fisher building.

Mrs. Dungan enjoys oil painting in her leisure time and is painting a portrait of their son George at the present time.

CUBSCOUTS
Cub Scouts of Den 10, with Den mothers Mrs. Howard Schweppe and Mrs. John Piers provided a skit at Pack meeting Wednesday, Feb. 2, showing a rocket ship made by the boys; their flight to the moon and two frog-men and a robot man who proved to be Cub Scouts of Den 10. The boys did a fine job.

Cub Scouts of Den 13 worked very industriously at den meeting Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 1, and when the meeting was over each cub carried home a completed bird feeder to hang in his back yard.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Brower, of Hills Drive, had as their guests last weekend Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Ruby, of Riverside, Calif. The Rubys were on their way to Florida for a visit and then will return to California.

Mrs. George W. Bird and daughter Patricia, 6095 Golfview, undisturbed by the monsoon Saturday, Feb. 5, left by car for their winter home at Lake Worth, Fla. Mrs. Bird and Patricia are in Florida about two months. Bird will join them about March 1 and the family will return around the first of April.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis C. Moriarty, of Hills drive and Mr. and Mrs. W. Carleton Scott had cocktails at the Scotts and dinner at Club Berkeley Friday evening, Feb. 4 to celebrate Scott's birthday. After dinner the couples returned to the Scotts' home on Lane Lake road.

HOBBY IS ROSES
Harold Warner, Snowshoe Circle, was guest speaker at the Tri-Towns Men's club meeting at the Lincoln Park Civic Center Tuesday evening, Feb. 8. His talk was titled "The Rose and Its Uses". Warner has been a member of the American Rose Society for 17 years and a member of the Detroit Rose Society for 15 years. He is past president of the Detroit group. Warner presented a colorful group of Rose slides taken of his garden.

Warner's experience in rose growing has been extensive, having grown them on various locations and under a variety of conditions. At present he is developing his fourth rose garden.

Warner lived in England for over a year and has many interesting notes on English garden culture.

Members of the AAFW Drama group gathered for lunch at the "Old Wayne Club" Wednesday, Feb. 2 and then attended the matinee performance of "Silk Stockings" at the Shubert-Lafayette.

Members attending included Mrs. Carleton Scott, Lane Lake road, Mrs. F. C. Moriarty, of Hills drive, Mrs. Michael Remondino, Mrs. William E. Kezel, Mrs. Howard McDonald, Mrs. Clarence Hienman, Mrs. John E. Lane and Mrs. Frank Mosher, all of Birmingham.

Mrs. Moriarty reported that she enjoyed the performance very much. She stated that the music and sets were very good.

Weather Eye on Laws Discussed by League

The weather eye that the League of Women Voters keeps on legislation and the word that is passed to local leagues is part of the continuing efforts that will be discussed at the general meeting of the local league members on Feb. 21.

The meeting is slated for 11:15 a.m. at the Community House, 606 Mrs. Berrien Ketchum's committee studies will be held for the discussion.

Most of the members, veterans in local league studies, have had previous study on these reviews of what should be kept on current agenda.

THE GROUP includes Mrs. E. S. Fleck, Mrs. Phillip Caldwell, Mrs. William H. Jackson, Mrs. James Fletcher, Mrs. Joel Warren, Mrs. Howard J. Liverance and Mrs. Charles B. Tolle.

Another league interest was centered on Tuesday, when a
