Troops Here Celebrate Birthday of Scouting

Troops in this area joined the more than 3 1/2 million Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, Explorers and their adult leaders throughout the country this week to mark the 45th anniversary of Boy Scouts of America.

Beginning with Church services Sunday, Feb. 6, troops scheduled special meeting programs, projects and overnight campsouts to celebrate the founding of the organization, Feb. 8, 1910, in Washington, D. C.

In a breakdown of national figures, there are now 1,160,000 Cub Scouts, 1,130,000 Boy Scouts, 410,000 Explorers and 300,000 Scouters (adult volunteer leaders) in the organization.

Theme of the birthday observance is "Building for a Better Tomorrow."

AS BOY Scouting celebrates its 45th birthday throughout the nation, Feb. 6-12, the Scouts of District One are celebrating their newly-established status as the world's largest scouting district.

An important part of this growth has been the heavy development of the Northern Community which includes the 28 Scout units in the Birmingham, Bloomfield, Southfield area. Douglas L. Witters, 18181 Kirkshire, Beverly Hills, is commissioner of the community.

There are now eighty Scout troops, 29 Cub packs and ten Explorer units in District One—which extends from Bloomfield Hills to East Line—with a combined boy membership of 7,450.

MORE THAN 2,300 men and women serve voluntarily in positions of leadership, so that there is a ratio of almost one adult for every three boys enrolled in the Scouting program. Women serve as den mothers. Men serve as leaders of troops, posts and packs, and also as commissioners and merit badge counselors.

Among local men who serve Scouting, the following are members of the executive committee of District One: William G. Lerchen, Jr., 950 Waddington, Bloomfield Village; Edward E. Wilson, 5380 Beech road, Troy; Ward W. Dworsnak, 3684 Roland, Bloomfield; W. Thomas Edwards, 1788 Yorkshire, Birmingham; William H. Breech, 3530 Franklin road, Franklin; Will H. Connolly, 1062 Stratford lane, Bloomfield Hills; and Cecil Harris, 25175 Peekskill, Birmingham.

Second Judo Lesson For B-27 Members

Scouts and Explorers of Troop B-27 will get their second lesson in judo at 7 p.m. Monday at the Baptist church Scout room.

Patrolman Jack Kalbfleisch will return to give further instruction in defensive judo. Each Scout has been teamed with a mate of similar weight.

Kalbfleisch will use 240 lb heavyweights Bob Kling, Fred Coffin, Bob Schaule, Bill Montgomery, Jim Lewis, Bill Lockridge, Phil Kiley and Paul Turner in a special demonstration.

Awards Presented At Annual Banquet Of Pack Members

To celebrate Scouting's 45th anniversary, Pack B-3 of Baldwin school held its third annual banquet on Feb. 7 at the First Baptist church.

Guests of honor were Community Commissioner Doug Witters and Arthur Roller, principal of Baldwin school.

Dads, den mothers and officers of the pack were also guests of the Club.

Mrs. Margaret Butler was introduced as the new Pack mother. She succeeds Mrs. Jane Mosher.

RECEIVING awards were Don MacFarley, Lion badge and graduation plaque; Jim Boase and Dick Swaney, Bob cat awards; David Naylor, Lion badge, gold arrow and three silver arrows; Jerry Mason, Fred Bears and Doug White, bear badge, gold arrow and two silver arrows.

Troop Attends Church Service

Nearly 30 Scouts of Troop B-28 under the direction of Scoutmaster Doug Smith participated in the 11 a.m. service at Our Shepherd Lutheran church Sunday.

The troop, sponsored by the church, led the congregation in the Pledge of Allegiance and the pledge to the Church flag.

RONALD K. RIEZ

Patrol Leader Made Eagle Scout

Ronald K. Riesz, Troop B-32 senior Patrol leader, will receive the Eagle Scout award Tuesday night, Feb. 15, at the troop's Court of Honor in the fellowship hall of the First Methodist church, Birmingham High student. Ronald lives at 27 S. Berkshire, Bloomfield Township.

Scoutmaster Richard Trowbridge will direct the ceremonies when six second-class awards will be made and two boys will make Tenderfoot.

To be elevated to second class Scouts are James Krueger, Lynn Scutts and James Krueger, Lynn Scutts, Craig Watt, Gary Ludwig, Galvin Lauritsen and Ronald Chadwick. Howe Beale and Richard Benecke will be inducted into the troop.

The Young Adult group of the church will present both an American and Scout flag to the troop.

Awards Revealed For Troop B-7

After entering 18 Scouts in the Klondike sled race at Pontiac Recreation area recently, Troop B-7 is looking forward to a busy agenda during the spring months.

At the most recent Troop Court and David Canham who advanced of Honor, Carl Lorcke, son of Mr. from Tenderfoot to second class and Mrs. Anton P. Lorcke, 1221 Northlawn, was made an Eagle Scout.
