Valentine-Birthday Parties Featured in News This Week

Valentines and birthdays seem to be a happy combination this month and a number of little girls got a special treat last week as a result. Six-year-old Linda Buchanan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Buchanan of Birwood entertained with a party in her home Saturday afternoon, and besides giving all her friends corsages, they all partook in a noteworthy refreshment.

Linda's 13-year-old brother, Ron, presented the girls with a veritable masterpiece in the form of a heart shaped, colorfully decorated birthday cake, made by himself.

Enjoying the cake as well as the afternoon's festivities were Sherry Kroeger, Kay Bruderick, Mary Jane Kettler, Judy Beaufait, Iona Hentschke, Gloria Graham, Julie Clark, and Sherrie Rundle.

Also celebrating with a birthday party this week was Julie Rundle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Rundle. Julie, who was eight years old Monday carried out the Valentine theme in her party, giving all the girls, red, heart-shaped hats, Valentine baskets, and trading cards as favors.

Games and peppermint stick ice cream rounded out the afternoon

Mrs. John D. Young of Buckingham road, Little Margaret was born Jan. 15 at Woman's hospital in Detroit, and has two older sisters, Cathy 6, and Mary Elizabeth, 4 years.

Of interest to Birwood residents is the announcement that comes from Saginaw of the arrival of a son, Richard Allen, born Jan. 21 to Dr. and Mrs. John O. Goodsell.

Mrs. Chris Sloman reports that the March of Dimes campaign in East Beverly collected over $1000 this year, and she wishes to thank her lieutenants and volunteers who made it possible for this area to go approximately 30% over last year's contributions.
