An event ahead at the Detroit Athletic Club and one in the immediate past revolve around many Birmingham and Bloomfield members of the downtown club.

The gala to come is the DAC's February dinner-floor show and it will open on Thursday, Feb. 17, and continue through the 20th, exclusive of Sunday.

Frank Fontaine, comedian of screen, television and radio, will star the nine-evening show with his droll mimicry and impersonations. Completing the double bill will be June Roselle, charming young singer.

At the opener, Dr. and Mrs. W. W. MacGregor will be hosts at the rehearsal dinner for their son, Charles G. MacGregor, and his prospective bride, Virginia O'Brien, who will be married on Feb. 19.

Among others with reservations are the D. E. Dumallocks, the William J. Rileys, the Percy K. Louns, the J. S. Beechers, the H. H. Koppins and the Ray A. Cragins.

THE FETE in the immediate past was the annual mixed party given Saturday by the DAC Beavers, the club's big swimming group.

The favorite hunt of the aquatic enthusiasts, the big natatorium, was the scene of part of the formal party—for dinner, tables were arranged around the pool as well as in the nearby gymnasium, where dancing also took place.

Art Quatro's strolling musicians played during the cocktail hour in two of the second floor dining rooms. The Del Debridge and Al Whyte orchestras spelled each other off for dancing. Entertainment was starred by singer Don Corbell. The Gaylor and the Clifford Nelsons, all of the Birmingham area.

In a group together were Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Hanna, the William F. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Mark, the Eldred H. Scotts, Mrs. and Mrs. L. J. Lacin and the Clifford Nelsons, all of the Birmingham area.
