

Audience Likes Performance by B'ham Pianist

Carol Rosenberger, Birmingham pianist, appeared as a soloist with the Pontiac symphony orchestra under the direction of Francesco Di Biasi before an enthusiastic capacity audience last evening. Her straightforward and precise interpretation of the Beethoven Third piano concerto was welcomed by the audience. Next Pontiac symphony concert on April 20, will close the third season for this orchestra. Francesco Di Biasi, conductor and musical director, also is a member of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

New Plats, Roads, Homes Mean Many New Neighbors

The map maker is busy these days keeping up with the changes in the North Adams area. New plats, new roads, new homes and new neighbors make this a growing community.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Long have just moved from Royal Oak to 4110 Orchard Hill drive in Hickory Heights. They are enjoying their home on the hillside and are glad they will be settled by springtime for then they can get out of doors and garden. Long is a plumbing and heating contractor.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander S. Wilner and their three boys moved recently from Grosse Pointe to their new home at 6212 Malvern. The boys are Paul, Mark and Phillip and they are 6 and 4 years and 15 months respectively. Wilner is in the truck body business.

When Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Young moved into their new home at 2809 Brently in Charmwood they started right in with their hobby. Finishing the interior of their homes has been their fun and they are now tackling number four.

Cupboards, paint, etc. are all the handiwork of this young couple who lived in South Bloomfield Highlands before this move. Young is an account executive with Denham and Co. in Detroit. They have three children. Peter is 5, Sue 4, and Steve 1 year old.

In time for Christmas, but just in time for the Paul A. Deroches moved into their new home at 6491 Anslow Lane on the 17th of December. They have a son and daughter, Paul 7 and Dorothy 6.

Deroche is a technical specialist at Chrysler. Mrs. Deroche said her new home takes up a lot of her interest and time but she finds time for her sewing, a craft she loves. This summer she plans to spend a great deal of her time gardening.

2026 Iamsbury is the address of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford I. Roland who moved here from Oak Park. They have two children, Steven 5 and Constance 2. Roland is a demonstrator for Sunstrand Machine Co. Gardening is Mrs. Roland's chief interest, for a new home offers much opportunity for such an activity.

A first home of their own is at 2506 Brently and the new owners are Mr. and Mrs. Earl J. Bibb. They lived in Detroit until they moved here two months ago. Bibb is an aircraft pilot with General Motors.

Mrs. Bibb is busying herself learning the arts of house-keeping.

Not too great in distance was the move made by the Wallace E. Rice family but it has meant a change in the lives of Penny, 13, and Patrick, 5. Moving from Waukegan road in the Troy school district to 6440 Anslow Lane in the Bloomfield district has meant a new school, new teachers and new friends for the children. Rice has his own business, the Rice Construction Co. on Barret road.

Moving day for the Lawrence A. Gilley family was in December and they were at home at 4280 Meadow Lane drive for Christmas. Gilley is an engineer with Arke Davis. The Gilleys have two children, Larry 9 and Linda Kay 6, by soon as the weather permits, Mrs. Gilley expects to make her hobby gardening.

Mrs. James P. Thompson entertained members of Alpha Delta Pi at a desert bridge last Thursday evening at her home on Walnut Hill drive.

ST. HUGO'S FASHION SHOW

On Friday, Mrs. William Franks, who is chairman of the prize committee for the Fashion Show to be given by St. Hugo of the Hills on Feb. 10, will hostess a luncheon for the members of her committee. The ladies are gathering at her beach road home to wrap the prizes for this annual event.
