When Airman 3rd Class Bruce Hannell called his parents Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Hannell from Fairbanks, Alaska on Jan. 28, to tell them they were grandparents, he forgot to tell them the name of their little granddaughter.

Pending a letter from the Alaska Hannells, the Lathrup Hannells are referring to granddaughter as Kerry Dale, which was top-o-the-little Little Kerry Dale's (L.K.D.) mother is the former Jacqueline Yvonne Cooper of Spokane, Wash.

Just wondering if we should head this item. "From the School of Hazzknocks." That glass missing from the Everett Nelson front door is an advance lesson on "How to Train a Boxer." If dog wanders too far, tap on glass. However, lesson does not say how hard the tap should be, and Mrs. Nelson put her fist through it. No damage to fist, but Mr. N. doesn't think much of the lesson, he has to replace the glass.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Mitchell (Vivian Black) have returned to the second semester at U. of M. with their small son Gregg after a brief vacation in and about Michigan while the Arthur Mitchells played adoring grandparents to young Gregg.

Spending a week in northern Michigan and taking part in the winter sports activities in Grayling were Dr. and Mrs. George Renton, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sawdon of Lathrup boulevard, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Roby and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Jey of Royal Oak. The group stayed at the Grayling Game club where they did some skiing, fishing and skating.
