Strawasers See Old Friends On Trip to Boston, New York

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Strawaser returned to their home at 3844 South Miller Way Monday, Feb. 7, from a ten-day combined business and vacation trip in the East. The Strawasers, with son David, 6, first went to Boston, Mass., where they visited numerous former school acquaintances. From there they went to stay with friends in New York City.

While Strawaser kept business appointments, Mrs. Strawaser and David took in sights of the city. Both Mr. and Mrs. Strawaser enjoyed taking their son to the ice rink and to see Radio City. Strawaser, who is in the greeting card distribution business, was viewing and selecting new cards and designs for holidays throughout the year. While making these selections, the family toured a greeting card plant saw various designs and the production of cards from just plain paper to the finished boxed cards. David collected samples of the various stages in manufacturing.

On their return trip, the Strawasers visited with Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hagman in Bethlehem, Pa., who were also school friends. Ruth Ann 4, daughter of the Strawasers, stayed with her grand-

WELCOME NEIGHBORS
Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Richards and their three boys, Tommy, 6, Craig, 5, and Grant, 3, are enjoying their home on Black Thorn drive to which they moved about two weeks ago. The Richards came to their new home from Detroit but were formerly from New York City.

Richards is sales engineer with Acme Foundry of Detroit. He is an enthusiastic golfer and is a member of Western Golf and Country club.

Members of Lone Pine Village are enjoying getting acquainted with many families who have recently moved into the area. Among these newcomers are the Robert C. Schultes who came to their new home at 4714 Ranch Lane about two months ago. They have three children, Barbara, 11, Bradley, 6, who attends Vaughan school, and Beverly, 3.

Schultes is manager of employer relations at Studebaker-Packard Corp. in Detroit. He is a golf and fishing enthusiast—when he has the time. The Schultes came originally from Chicago.

Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. V. Reo Campian who moved into their new home at 4872 Ranch Lane, Dec. 5. They were married in Traverse City Dec. 4 and came directly to their new home.

Campian is president of the Modern Body Engineering Corporation in Detroit. Mrs. Campian is office manager of the corporation. The Campians have a lodge on Mrs. Campian's family estate near Traverse City where they spend all of their weekends during the summer months.

Other new residents in Lone Pine Village are Mr. and Mrs. Irvin J. Brower who moved to 4785 Ranch Lane about a month ago from Sherburne in the Wing Lake area. The Browsers have two girls, Cynthia, 7, and Leslie, 4.

Brower is a sales representative and has his office in the Fisher building in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Brower were pleasantly surprised Saturday evening, Feb. 5, when 22 of their neighbors and friends gave them a house-warming party. The Browsers were presented with a beautiful rhime clock by the group.

FUN AND GAMES
Happy Birthday greetings were showered on Bradley Schulte, 6, years old, at his party Saturday, Feb. 12. Pin-the-tail-on-the-donkey and the clothespin-in-the-bottle were among the games enjoyed before the ice cream and birthday cake.

Guests at Bradley's party were Leslie and Cynthia Brower, Jackie and Vance Hanna, Nancy More, Connie Jean and Debbie Broach, Dean and Susan Heiberger, Sue Kingsbury and Bradley's sisters, Barbara and Beverly.

Bradley's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Schulte, of 4714 Ranch Lane.

Much shouting, 'boom-boom' and laughter indicated a good time at Freddy Ewald's eleventh birthday party Saturday, Feb. 12. The eight boys present had lunch at the Ewald home and then went to see "Drum Beat" at the Bloomfield theatre.

Guests at Freddy's party were Carson Brown, Roger Picou, Billy Weeks, John Schweitzer and Jim Leslie from the neighborhood and John Wiefelmann and Gary Wiefelmann from Detroit.

Freddy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey W. Ewald, of 3855 South Miller Way.

Little Virginia Dusseau will celebrate her second birthday Thursday, Feb. 17, by having as dinner guests her great-grandmother, Mrs. C. A. Richards, her grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart McCombs, and an uncle, Lt. Stuart McCombs, Jr.

Virginia's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dusseau of North Miller Way. Virginia has one brother, Robert, Jr., three years old.

Tickets on Sale For 'AAUW Benefit

Mrs. Preston R. Weir announces tickets still available for the Birmingham AAUW's spring benefit, featuring Dr. Dudley Craft Watson's travelogue and picture story of Spain. It will be held on March 1 at Cranbrook gym at 8 p.m.

Dr. Watson has made a career of lecturing on his extended travels, and since 1926 has been a membership lecturer of the Art Institute of Chicago. He is also a noted author, artist and internationally known tour director. He has gained honors and recognition for his work and varied talents in countries all over the world.

Mrs. Weir, general chairman of the benefit, entertained members of the ticket committee at a luncheon at her home Feb. 11.

Money from the benefit will go for national scholarships and international fellowships that are awarded annually by the AAUW.
