"Paul Bunyon of Graefield" Returns from Business Trip

Henry Palubian has recently returned to his Graefield road home, after spending a month on business in frigid Alaska, to buy lumber for the Swain Lumber company.

The temperatures at Bar Head where he visited a mill, was 25 degrees below zero, but the cold according to Palubian is not as penetrating as ours.

Taking his morning constitutional in Edmonton, Palubian lit a cigar and by the time it reached his mouth, the cigar was covered with ice.

The coldest weather was encountered while driving from Vancouver to Seattle. Palubian was most impressed by the fact it was so clear he could see the Cascade mountains through the falling snow. Neighbors and friends refer to Palubian as the "Paul Bunyon of Graefield."

Another Graefielder home from a business trip is Rudy Zamora. Zamora was in Los Angeles, Calif. for five weeks on special assignment for Jam Handy. Unlike his neighbor, Palubian, Zamora enjoyed the sunny warm weather of Los Angeles. With the temperature in the 80's, golf was very much of a pleasure for Zamora. While there he visited Mrs. Zamora's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Jacobson of Los Angeles.

lecting antique furniture. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hollinger enjoy golf. The Hollingers are now residing at 1948 Graefield road.

Mrs. Byron Rowland recently gave a tea party at her home in honor of Mrs. Frank Rockford of Minneapolis, Minn., mother of Mrs. Norman Burruss of Graefield road. The tea table was decorated with a centerpiece of white candles and pink and white carnations. After tea, guests played the game "Twenty Questions."

Graefield guests present were Mrs. Stan Pettygrove, Mrs. James A. Aliber, Mrs. L. A. Farquhar and Mrs. Eugene Hess. Out-of-town guests include Mrs. Stewart Prichard, and Mrs. Red Knowland of Utica, Miss Pat Larkin of Palmer Park. Also present was Mrs. Robert Good of Birmingham.

VALENTINE TEA

Last Monday Mrs. David Weikel gave a Valentine tea party at her Graefield road home in honor of Mrs. John Hollinger, a newcomer to the area.

Guests attending were Mrs. John Edwards, Mrs. Norman Burruss, Mrs. Byron Rowland, Mrs. Robert McLeese, Mrs. Carson Dougherty, Mrs. Gaylor Rhodes and Mrs. Harry Simpson.

Others included Mrs. Joseph D. Grumlish, Mrs. Richard Austin, Mrs. John R. Tucker, Jr. and Mrs. John Donoghue.
