Grissoms of Carey Lane Back from Western Trip

Mr. and Mrs. James Grissom, Carey Lane, just returned from a trip to California. En route they visited Grand Canyon and Las Vegas.

Their stay in California was a "picnic!" So says Mrs. Ed Carroll, Thrasher road, who last week spent one evening in Chicago as one of 16 members of her former high school sorority who got together. One was here from California, one from Washington and Mrs. Carroll from Michigan. The rest still live in and around Chicago.

They had dinner at the Conrad Hilton hotel and then spent the evening recalling old times, and bringing in another up-to-date on present families and activities. Mrs. Carroll spent the night in River Forest with one of the friends and returned by train the next afternoon.

WING LAKE WNFG

Hostess for the regular monthly meeting of the Wing Lake branch of the WNFG, Mon. Feb. 7, was Mrs. Alfred Kasemeyer, Worlington road. Her co-hostesses were Mrs. Iva Jones and Mrs. Edward Carroll.

In the absence of Mrs. Ralph Darling, president, Mrs. Edward Carroll presided. After the business meeting, Mrs. Carroll, program chairman, introduced the speaker, Mrs. Joseph Johnson, Wing Lake road.

Mrs. Johnson is especially studied and experienced in garden flowers, perennial and annual. On this subject she gave an abundance of timely information for planning the garden this coming season.

The tea table was beautifully appointed with a centerpiece of American Beauty roses and white carnations. Mrs. Dave-Jones presided.

FOX CROFT WNFG

Members and guests of the Foxcroft branch of the WNFG met at the home of Mrs. D. C. Somers, 4205 Valley Forge, Mon. Feb. 7. Mrs. J. W. Wolfson and Mrs. J. C. Finnegan assisted as co-hostesses. In the absence of the president, Mrs. H. R. Carter, Mrs. Geo. W. Mack, vice president, presided. At the close of the business meeting, Mrs. J. S. Black, program chairman, introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Frank Chapman, chairman of International Cooperation. She is also past president of the Michigan Division, WNFG.

Mrs. Chapman explained in detail the work of the International Cooperation. After her informative talk, Mrs. Mack announced a white elephant sale.

Later, tea was served with Mrs. G. L. McCain and Mrs. J. A. McDonald presiding at the Valentine's tea table. The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. F. Lutz, Lantern Lane.

Skate to Tunes On Forest Lake

Music piped down to Forest Lake for skaters will be a feature of the adult skating party at the Forest Lake Country club on Feb. 26.

Following skating, which starts at 8:30 p.m., members and their guests will warm up at dinner in the clubhouse. If they have energy left, there will be dancing later. Committee for the event are Mr. and Mrs. Eino Nurme.

ANOTHER EVENT on the club's agenda is the St. Patrick's party, March 23. Shamrocks and green hats are being collected for the dinner-dance event, for which the Carl L. Horners and the Stanley J. Gillens are host couples. The event is set for 7 p.m.

Officers Named At Tuesday Brunch

The ladies of Forest Lake Country club held their first business session of the year Tuesday when they gathered at the club for a brunch. At tables decorated with yellow lunas were 68 guests.

Mrs. Robert Voss, vice chairman, presented the retiring chairman, Mrs. Ernest F. Bentley of Livonia with a corsage of red roses.

Order of the day was the election of officers with Mrs. Albert C. Vost named as golf chairman, and Mrs. Arthur L. Foltz, Jr., as social chairman.

Mrs. Stewart M. Nunnally has been appointed district representative for Forest Lake Country club to the Women's District Golf Association.

where appetizers were served; then to Janice Dehant's for the main course, and lastly to Carol Gedeiman's home where dessert awaited them. The evening's entertainment consisted of games and movies at the Gedeiman residence. Mrs. Allen Gedeiman is leader of the Troop, with Mrs. Edgar Dehant, co-leader.

On Prom Committee

Pat Daley, daughter of Thomas E. Daley, 1641 Birmingham boulevard, served on the program committee for the annual Junior Prom at Marygrove college this month. Highlight of the formal dance was music by Don Gies and his Men of Notre Dame.

Pledges Sorority

Frances Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Curtis Wilson, 668 Halfmoon road, is being initiated into Epsilon chapter of Gamma Phi sorority at Northwestern University. Miss Wilson is a freshman in the school of Liberal Arts and is an art major.
