Musicale Guests Hear French Compositions

Those who attended the Birmingham Musicale report an enjoyable afternoon as the program and unusual. Selections emphasized French composition and Mrs. Dorothy Roosevelt chose her piano numbers from the French composers. The theme was also carried out in the vocal solos of Mary Pardee. The committee responsible for the Tea should be commended, guests reported, as the table arrangements were unusually attractive.

Beside members of the Birmingham Musicale, there were many guests. Mrs. Herschel Roberts, a new member, and Mrs. Harold Walker, both from Kinross avenue were with Mrs. C. A. Goodspeed of 17306 Lecherie, Mrs. William Hohmeyer, 18320 Hillcrest, invited Mrs. Philip Dexter and Mrs. Jack Strauss, 1290 Henrietta avenue.

In addition to local patrons, a number of officers from the Detroit Tuesday Musicale were there.

Mrs. Hugh Hemphill, 32400 Mayfair, entertained 12 guests at brunch on Feb. 10. This is the third of a series of parties of this kind at the Hemphill home. At the first one, she was assisted by Mrs. Robert Hutchinson, at which time they entertained their Beverly neighbors.

The West Beverly branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association will meet Thursday, Feb. 24 at the home of Mrs. Eugene Seitz, 32924 Norchester. The speaker, Rev. Harold P. Thompson, will have as his subject "African Violets."

LEAVES FOR TEXAS
Dr. Arthur DeRostier, 1895 Bedford road left Saturday, Feb. 5 for San Antonio, Texas where he will remain for six weeks while taking an indoctrination course at Brook hospital. His family will stay here until he has completed this work and has definite information regarding where he will be stationed.

John Mysing, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Mysing, 15444 River-

The Beverly Hills sewing group met at the home of Mrs. Elmer C. Ray, 18461 West 14 Mile road, Tuesday, Feb. 8. Fifteen were present and the time was spent to good advantage as they were turning out small dresses for deserving little people.

POWERS ENTERTAIN
"It's a long way" to Metamora, but Mrs. and Mr. Harry Whitaker and Mr. and Mrs. James Miller did not feel that way after an evening in Beverly Hills with Mr. and Mrs. John Powers. Many miles and zero weather meant nothing after cocktails and dinner with their genial host and hostess at 18919 Riverside drive.

GIRL SCOUTS
Girl Scout Troop 409 stole a march on St. Valentine and had their party ahead of the usual date's party. On Feb. 8 they were entertained by their leader, Mrs. J. T. Donough, 32262 Beaconsfield. The decorations were appropriate for the actual Feb. 14 date, with hearts, cupid and arrows galore. Games were played and refreshments enjoyed by Famine, Ash, Nancy Drinkard, Barbara Harling, Judy Dimock, Kate Gimman, Mary Dorough, Mabel Beeman, Lee Eyer and Linda Young. Two girls were absent because of illness. They were Cheryl Zebede and Susan McClinton.

The girls are getting ready for their annual cookie sale, which will be Feb. 14.

BEVERLY PTA
Beverly school will hold its PTA meeting on Feb. 23 at 8 p.m. Teachers are hoping for a good attendance that night as guest speaker, Mrs. Rhea Cope, will speak on a subject especially interesting to parents.

Problems of children is her subject, and a discussion will follow in which parents will be able to ask questions and give their own ideas in regard to the development of the child.

Mrs. Cope is well qualified to present this particular subject as she is a teacher and also a mother of two children herself. She is a graduate of University of Michigan and has taken post graduate work at Wayne university and Columbia.

New Picture Loan Opens at Library
Wednesday evening marked the opening of Baldwin public library's newest division, the Picture Loan Collection.

Acquisition of these framed pictures was made possible through the bequest of the late John W. Watling plus a gift from Birmingham's Junior League.

The current public display will remain open until Feb. 23, when the actual loaning of pictures will begin. Reservations for favorites may be made at any time prior to that date.

Picture loans may be arranged Monday evenings, 6-8:30; Wednesday afternoons, 2-5, and Saturday mornings, 10-12.

Attend Luncheon Of Opera Officers
Newly appointed chairman of the women's committee, Detroit Grand Opera association, Mrs. Walker A. Williams, this week announced the names of vice chairmen in this area.

From Birmingham she lists Mrs. Richard E. Darragh with Mrs. Steven Bauer, Mrs. Norman H. Strouse and Mrs. Ralph H. Polk, Jr., from Bloomfield Hills.

These, with vice chairmen from Detroit, Grosse Pointe and Dearborn met Monday at the Detroit Athletic club for luncheon and discussion of plans.

School Official To Speak Tuesday
Roy E. Robinson, superintendent of schools in Ferndale, will speak to the City and Country school PTA Tuesday, Feb. 22, 8:30 p.m., at the school in Bloomfield Hills.

His topic will be, "Some Implications of Individual Differences for Education."

Mr. Robinson has won national attention for his introduction of advanced teaching methods in the Ferndale schools system.

New Cinerama, Pre-Show Dinners Draw Residents Down Woodward

Many Birmingham and Bloomfield residents followed the sweeping beams that announced the opening of "Cinerama Holiday" Tuesday night in Detroit.

Many who went to the benefit event for the Detroit Memorial hospital attended or hosted dinners at the Detroit Athletic club previously.

Three local couples were guests at dinner of the Mervyn G. Gaskin, sharing a closeness to the hospital board and is owner of Music Hall where "Cinerama Holiday" opened.

The 16 dinner guests included James A. MacAlearney of Southfield township, the William J. Rileys of Birmingham and the Leo J. Knapps of Bloomfield township.

AFTER THE SHOW and the presentation of producer Louis DeRochemont and the two young couples who took the Cinerama trips, the Gaskins hosted a supper for them again at the DAC.

Especially pleased were the couple from Switzerland, the Fred Troblers, for Gaskin had Swiss cheese souffle served in best after-dinner fashion. The recipe was on the "C.H." program.

DINNER GUESTS AT THE DAC of the Raymond F. Giffels of Grosse Pointe, as their dinner guests, while Dr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Poirier, of Bloomfield Hills, feted Dr. Poirier's father, Dr. J. A. Poirer, of Forest Lake, Minn., and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Boggs and Dr. and Mrs. Bruce Proctor, of the Pointe.

There were 12 in the dinner parties of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Reyster, of Birmingham, including Pointe and Port Huron residents.

THE L. C. BERKREYS of Larche entertained four couples, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Rommel of Bloomfield township, Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Brown of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs.

boosting the total gleaned for the hospital to nearly $12,000 included Mrs. James Verror, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. James A. Beresford of the Hillis, Dr. and Mrs. W. Lloyd Kemp of Yarmouth, C. Alden Harlan of Adams road, Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Booth, of the Hillis, and Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Thompson, of Birmingham.
