

Village Students Mark Holidays

B.L.M. VILLAGE—First Grade. We are writing our first grade news. We read stories. Yesterday we changed our reading group names. One is the Valentines, and one is the Bullfighters and one is the Buttercups. We like to read. We read silently. We won a silver cup. We won it because we had the most mothers and fathers at the PTA meeting on Monday. We made a Valentine box. We are supposed to bring Valentines. We traced one of our friends and they traced us. The drawings are as big as we are. We have plants. We know the Magic Words: Please, Thank You, and Excuse Me.

Second Grade.—Mrs. Sankey's birthday is Abraham Lincoln's birthday. He was born on February 12, 1809. February 14 is Valentine's day. Reported by David Smith.

Third and Fourth Grade. The president is Sandy Eakins, the vice president is Susan Drouge. The good citizens are Bobby Taggart and Lynne Beers.

The third and fourth grades are going to have a Valentine party on Monday.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all news—all the society editor about them.

ON A DELUXE CRUISE to the Caribbean ports of the Netherlands West Indies, Venezuela and Colombia are Dr. and Mrs. Chauncey G. Burke of Glenngary circle, Bloomfield Hills. They left New York aboard the Santa Paula.

cruse ship, SS Alcoa Clipper, ports of La Guaira, Puerto Cabello, and Guanta, all in Venezuela, Port of Spain, Trinidad, Kingston, and Jamaica in the British West Indies. They also saw the site of Christopher Columbus' final visit in the Caribbean, Ciudad Trujillo, in the Dominican republic.

Skits and Foreign Dances

Customs and costumes will symbolize the ideas being talked about during National Brotherhood week that begins Sunday at Marygrove college in Detroit. Placing displays of customs that can exist together and costumes of various nationalities that can work together is chairman of the exhibits committee. A program of skits and foreign dances is being arranged by the entertainment committee, which includes Annerose Zoller, of Franklin Hills drive.

Panecake Breakfast

At a bon voyage breakfast for Mr. and Mrs. John E. Wells of St. John's Woods on Sunday, Clarence Wormuth donned his chef's apron and hat and the griddle cakes flew. Mrs. Wormuth reports not one hitting her kitchen ceiling however, and the guests agreed that Wormuth deserved the blue ribbon and title "Panecake King" painted on his apron. Guests at the breakfast were Mr. and Mrs. Dale O. Miller of Bloomfield Village, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Locke of Detroit, and Mrs. Harold Sawyer of Pleasant Ridge.

Bloomfield Troy Future Teachers Attend Hills Meeting

(Continued from Page 1, Sec. 2) On Feb. 11, nine girls from Troy attended a Future Teachers meeting with Earla Smith and John Bro at Vaughan school in Bloomfield Hills. The purpose of this meeting was to familiarize students with the teaching profession. Mrs. Kathleen Wint, elementary supervisor of Bloomfield Hills, served as chairman. Future Teachers clubs from Birmingham, Berkeley, Southfield, Ferndale, Highland Park, and Bloomfield Hills also attended.

Mr. Norman Olmstead, curriculum coordinator of Southfield Township Schools was the speaker for the occasion. His topic was "Teaching—A Job or a Profession?" The girls from Troy that attended were Pat Lowe, Carol Steble, Shirley Keidel, Carolyn Epler, DeLores Meeker, Helen Linnerson, Bonnie Martin, Betty Kujala and Jean Brown.

Don't forget to vote in the Bloomfield Township primary election next Monday, Feb. 21 at the Fire House.

BHS Students Hear Assemblies

Birmingham high school has been entertained recently by two assemblies. The Reverend John Mangrum of St. Peter's church, Detroit, last Friday and the Will-O-Way players on Monday. The Reverend Mr. Mangrum was very well received by the students during and after his talk on juvenile delinquency and skid row. Five members of the Will-O-Way Playhouse, including George Scott, Larry Johnson, Joel Sebastian, Frances Sebastian, and Eroll Fortin. George Scott is the director of the winter stock. Larry Johnson was the master of ceremonies, Joel Sebastian was formerly an announcer for WKMH. They gave three short scenes from various plays, calling the series "100 Years of Comedy." The three were "Mr. Roberts", "Gold in the Hills", and "The Importance of Being Earnest".

Community House Asks BHS Fund Aid

Community House requested various departments at the high school to help make its goal in money this year. The speech department was represented by Howard Leavenworth, Jim Bain and Terry McElaffy. They spoke at the Community House for the Exchange, Rotary, Lions, Hi-12 and AAUW organizations. The art department made posters which are scattered throughout the city. Journalism students wrote editorials for The Birmingham Eccentric.
