

Notre Dame Student Lecture on India Studies in Vienna

Virgil Exner, Jr., sailed last week on the "Liberte" for Vienna, Austria, where he will attend the Institute of European Studies for the next semester. While there he plans to travel throughout the European countries.

An art student, he was graduated from Cranbrook. When he returns from Vienna, he will complete his final year at Notre Dame. Virgil is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Exner of 1636 Westwood drive.

Household goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

VILLAGE PLAYERS frolicked in the midst of South American scenes last Saturday evening as their Playhouse was taken South of the Border for the evening. Among the many interesting costumes were those worn by Mrs. Dean Howell, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Aishton and Mrs. Gordon Jaynes. When the judges announced their decision, it was found that the Aishtons had taken top honors in the "prettiest costume" division.

Area Teachers Attend Meeting

Nine teachers from the Birmingham area attended a two-day conference on Recreation and Conservation Feb. 12-13 at the Higgins Lake Conservation center.

The meeting, which attracted 77 educators, was headed by Dorothy Haven of Adams school.

Speakers from Michigan State college and the state conservation department addressed the conference.

Besides the chairman, others from here who attended were Katherine Reed of Baldwin, Morris Jordan, Stacie Dickey, Gerry Rue of Adams, Louise Dallas of Pembroke, Emily Wacterman and Ed Rydell, both of Pontiac, and Virginia Finney, formerly of Adams school.

Gerry Rue will be chairman of next year's meeting in February.

Kiwanis Toothbrush Sale Will Benefit Camp Oakland Funds

Toothbrushes and Camp Oakland are uppermost in the minds of Birmingham Kiwanians as they prepare to launch their one-day street sale of brushes on March 25.

Harry Aten, chairman, said tickets were on hand and could be purchased from any club member beginning this week. These will be redeemable for the brushes on the day of the sale.

Don McGaffey, Kiwanis president, said funds would be used to help finance the construction of a cabin at the lakeside camp.

Ceramic Course Underway At Y

Only five more registrations will be accepted for the Birmingham YMCA Ceramics class which is meeting each Thursday night from 7:30 until 9:30 p.m. in the craft-room. This group which is mixed, had an orientation lecture on the history of art and an evening spent on abstract design.

Their work is primarily with enamel on copper. The finished products are cuff links, earrings, bar pins, ash trays, and stick pins.

A materials fee and course registration is required of all people. The course runs until March 4 and no more registrations will be accepted after February 17.
