Poster Winners Awarded Prizes

Scrolls will be awarded to school students judged winners in the poster contest sponsored by the Community House board to further the 1955 Red Cross efforts.

Judges Marshall Fredericks and Mr. and Mrs. J. Robert F. Swanson announced the results of their study to be:

Birmingham high schoolers: Sandy Shukitt, Connie Gordon and Charles Rash; Barnum, Susan

Area Youths Cast In Singing Roles In Joint Operetta

Three Birmingham area youths have been chosen from a cast of 150 students to sing starring roles in the forthcoming Kingswood-Cranbrook production of the Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, "Yeomen of the Guard."

Dwight Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Davis of Bloomfield Hills, will play the part of a wisecracking jester, one of the favorite Gilbert and Sullivan type characters.

Dwight, who is resident of the Cranbrook school glee club, is also a member of the Student Cabinet and the "C" Club. He has earned varsity letters in football, basketball and baseball during his six years at Cranbrook.

Starring as Sergeant Meryll of the Tower guards will be Carl Karlstrom, son of Mrs. Gunnar Karlstrom of Birmingham. As a guard Carl will wear one of the picturesque "Beefer" costumes while he becomes embroiled in a comic triangle of mistaken identity.

EXTRA-curricularly Carl belongs to the glee club, the camera club, and is a member of the soccer, wrestling and baseball squads. Gordon, leader, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Lapides of Birmingham, will appear onstage as Wilfred Shadob, head jester and assistant tormenter at the Tower of London, setting of the operetta.

Gordon is also active on the school newspaper staff as feature editor, and is a member of the glee club and track squad.

To be held Feb. 25 and 26 at 8 p.m. in the Cranbrook school auditorium, "Yeomen of the Guard" is open to the public. Tickets may be secured through the school office.

City, Country Studies Mexico

The first graders at City and Country school are working on a Mexican project. They have made a large frieze depicting life in Mexico. They are dressing dolls in Mexican costumes. A trip to the Detroit Art Museum is being planned. They are planning to have a guide show them the exhibit on Mexico. A fine collection of Mexican pictures can be seen on their bulletin board in their room. Clay pottery and a volcano are being completed.

The second grade in connection with its unit on Indians have made headbands. They wear them all the time in school, and they try to do good deeds in order to earn more feathers for them. They are going on a trip to the Art Museum to see the Indian exhibit, and they have invited a real Indian dancer to come out to show them some Indian dances. They also made a map of Indian territory.

The third grade is studying Indians. They are constructing a pioneer settlement in the Youngfield Village for the day.

The senior boys have organized two hockey teams composed of Bud Breitmeyer, Tom Roper, Gerry Smiderman, Jay Haines, John Peltzer, Martin Spitz, Peter Booth, Alan Swartz, Mike McGuire and Howard Sanderson.

Sunnie Zahler has been selected as our official reporter.

Joe Shufman of the second grade showed and explained his stone collection to the Senior class.
