A matinee party celebrated St. Valentine's Day with eighth graders at Barnum, Friday, February 11. The dance was informal. It started at 5:00 p.m. and ended at 4:30. Records were used for dancing. The dance was held in the gymnasium. A fee was charged at the door. Cakes were sold to the eighth graders at the dance.

A VALENTINE dance, called Cupid's Capers was given for the seventh graders at Barnum, Monday, February 14. The dance started at 7:00 p.m. and ended at 11:00 p.m. Records and other activities were held in the gymnasium. Tickets were bought in advance for 20c each. Cookies were served, cakes were sold, and a door prize was given. Two hundred tickets were sold, 100 to boys and 100 to girls. The seventh grade dance was sponsored by the seventh grade Homemaking homeroom, classes. These Homemaking classes baked cookies, made tickets, made the decoration, and supervised the entertainment. The dance was informal.

METAL SHOP, Wood working, and Mechanical drawing are the three divisions of the Barnum Shop.

In Metal Shop students learn how to work with metal working tools. The instructor for this division is Mr. Smiley.

In woodworking they learn to use the wood working machines and tools. The instructor is Mr. Wasielewski.

In Mechanical drawing they learn the uses of the precision tools. The instructor is Mr. Shick, who also has the after school Radio Club.

TALENT SHOW
A talent show is being planned at Barnum Junior High school. The date has not been set as yet. Some of the acts are dancing, piano playing, singing and pantomiming.

Knitting club meets each Thursday after school until about 4:30. The homemaking teachers are sponsoring the club. The girls are working on scarves, mittens, and stocking caps. Refreshments are available each week.

BOOK CLUB
The Teen-Age book club has been joined by the 7-2 language arts class of room 214. Ann Bailey is the secretary of the club and takes orders for new books from the members. The books are written by such authors as Ogden Nash, Rostand, R. L. Stevenson and many others. Some of the titles of the books are, Cyrano de Bergerac, Magnificent Obsession and Call me Lucky, to name only a few. Each month the members have a selection of about sixteen

Hills Student Honor Assembly

On Feb. 3 an honors assembly was held for Bloomfield Hills high school to present academic and athletic awards to students who had earned them during the first semester of school.

The academic awards were presented by the principal, Mr. Spiess, Miss Sierit and Mr. Murry, the physical education teachers, presented the athletic awards.

Entertainment was provided for the students by Mr. Lochman's instrumental department who used the assembly as a dress rehearsal for the Michigan district solo and ensemble instrumental festival.

THIS WAS HELD Saturday, February 5, at Michigan Normal College.

Bloomfield Hills entered eight events and came home with reason.

Anyone at Barnum who is interested in radio work may attend one of the meetings.

CHORAL GROUPS
The seventh and eighth grade choruses at Barnum junior high school are under the direction of Miss Brette.

Choral meetings are held for the girls on Wednesday during the noon hour in which 100 girls participate. The boys' choral group meets Thursdays at noon also and has about 50 in its chorus.

The seventh grade choral groups are going to appear in the Birmingham Spring Festival.

The eighth grade groups only are going to appear in the county-wide Spring Festival.

to hold their heads high. Pete Lewis and Art Plaxton placed in a first division. Pete played a Chopin etude on the piano and Art played a trombone selection. By placing in a first division Pete and Art are eligible for the state finals to be held March 26.

Paulie Hutchins, Paula Albertson and Douglas Rosa placed in second division, and Sally Boyd, George Heaver, and a clarinet quartet, consisting of Elizabeth Johnson, Tom Funke, George Beaver, and Suzanne Boyd placed in the third division.

THE NEED for entertainment at a forthcoming Dads Club Father and Son banquet caused four boys to get together and form a barber shop quartet. They are: Don Brown, Jim Blake, Tom Costello and Dave Ford. Although no one heard them, rumor has it that they are quite good!

An octette has been formed by eight girls in the music department. They are: Mary Lou Fuller, Mike Fleming, Susie Grant, Janet Richards, Jackie Trombly, Phyllis Steele, Barbara Woolson and Glenn Miller. They have entered the Michigan District Solo and Ensemble Vocal Festival. Don Brown has entered the contest, also, as a soloist.

WHILE CARS slide on the streets and snowmen are being built in our front yards, spring is in the air at Bloomfield Hills high school. Each Monday evening from 7 to 9, the schoolmen and a group of about 30 students have been meeting for two weeks to rehearse for their Spring Concert.

The eighth grade groups only are going to appear in the county-wide Spring Festival.

Police Band Plays at Troy

The Detroit police band put on an assembly and then played for dancing at lunch hour at Troy high school.

The band, under the direction of Lt. Mitten, played several selections during the assembly.

A march, "Stand By" was their first selection, followed by "Irene." Next, they played a tune that is familiar to everyone, "The Happy Wanderer."

Milton Marmion sang the solo in "Tales from The Vienna Woods," after which they played another familiar song, "Mr. Sandman." "Miss Yoman Fantasy" was the next selection which featured Eugene Purchiaroni as the soloist.

The Gremelin Ball and "Song of the Vagabonds" were their two final selections for the assembly.

Miss Black, a policewoman on the Detroit force, gave a short talk on policewomen.

The band played for dancing during the lunch hour, which everyone enjoyed.

The student council was responsible for this assembly.
