

NEXT ON THE South Oakland County Community Concert association program is Stephen Kemalyan, baritone, who will be heard at 8:15 p.m., Feb. 18, at the Royal Oak high school auditorium. Although little known here, Kemalyan is one of the west coast's most popular young singers. He has appeared on radio, the concert stage and in movies, and is always a noted attraction. A veteran too, of many concert appearances with such orchestras as the San Francisco, Seattle and Los Angeles philharmonic, he has also been on the operatic stage. His current tour will take him to 10 cities after which he dreams of appearing in a stereophonic motion picture.

Alumnae Hear Columnist Talk on Pen-Hobby

Heben Brunson will give her answers to "Who Writes?" and "Why Write?" when she talks to the North Woodward alumnae association of Kenosha, Wis., on Tuesday.

Mrs. Brunson is author of "The Commuter's Wife," a column that is written for The Eccentric and which won national press honors last summer. After discussing writing as a profitable hobby and recalling experiences with editors who have published her articles and stories, she will read one of her short short stories, "The O'Brien Can Play Too."

K&Z active living in the area are invited to contact Mrs. Rullin Gish, 456 Puritan if they wish to attend the meeting.

Cranbrook Music Guild Hosts Tea

Continuing its close relationship with the Detroit Symphony orchestra, members of the Cranbrook Music Guild will meet with symphony members at a tea from 2-4 p.m. Feb. 21, at Cranbrook. Plans to discuss plans for the March 15-16 fashion show. Among the Music Guild members who will be hostesses at the tea are Mrs. William L. Graham, Mrs. Robert L. Graham, Mrs. Benjamin Brewster, Mrs. John W. Sanders, Mrs. John E. Coulter and Mrs. Paul Connolly.

Localities on the style show ticket committee include Mrs. W. Lloyd Kemp and Mrs. Lloy Dahlberg.

Elected to Office in National Group

Mrs. Alfred E. Grann, 6700 Oakhill Drive, Birmingham, has been elected a member of the corporation of Save the Children Federation, international child welfare agency, it was announced today by Dr. Richard P. Saunders, Federation president. Mrs. Grann has long been active with the Federation and is chairman of its greenland committee of SCP, which recently raised over $10,000 dollars for the fight against tuberculosis among children there.

Saturday's Stories

At the 10:30 a.m. story hour at Baldwin library this Saturday, "Jack and the Beanstalk," "Peter Humberg and the White Cat" are the selected titles. Open to youngsters through grade six, the program is in charge of Kathleen Pickett, Baldwin's librarian.

Attend Dinner Dance

Mr. and Mrs. James Cruikshank of Southfield Township and Mrs. Donald Murray of Bloomfield Township attended the Detroit Schoolmen's dinner dance at the Shelby hotel on Saturday. Mr. Cruikshank is president of the Schoolmen's club.

A son, Bruce Charles, was born Feb. 10 to MR. AND MRS. A. R. WOOD, 2397 Manchester. Mr. Wood is the former Shirley Mainland.

A daughter, Leslie Mary, was born Feb. 1 to MR. AND MRS. LAOGIE CLARK of San Diego, Calif., formerly of Birmingham.
