

Wing Lake - Foxcroft

VIRGINIA COLE MA 6-3585

Teacher named to Attend WNFG Conservation Meet

The Foxcroft branch of the WNFG has selected a teacher as their representative at the Conservation Training school at Higgins Lake this summer. She is Mrs. Lyle Johnson of Birmingham, a fourth grade teacher at Wing Lake school.

The committee naming Mrs. Johnson consists of Mrs. Mark H. Martin, Mrs. Frances G. Gadd and Mrs. Robert J. Hickson.

Branches of Woman's National Farm and Garden club throughout the country are sponsoring teachers as their representatives at these conservation sessions because teachers are then equipped to return to school and pass on the information to students as well as been their very close friends for 15 years.

Mrs. Randall Crabbe gave a morning coffee for Mrs. Shaw, with several neighbors as guests.

WELCOME NEWCOMERS

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Shaw moved from northwest Detroit to their new home on Sheringham road last week.

The Shaws have two children, Dick and Barbara, who are attending state college and has been commissioned in the Air Corps. He is awaiting assignment. Daughter Phyllis, Mrs. Robert Lee Dressel of Norfolk, Va., has a baby daughter, Diane.

Shaw is branch manager for the Meyercood company, Detroit, and Mrs. Shaw teaches fourth grade at East Southfield school.

Before the recent Wing Lake Farms square dance, the Edgar Debands entertained at cocktails and buffet supper. Guests were the Virgil Lakes and Gale Wells of Royal Oak, the Donald Swazys, Richard Treasurer and Vivian Kowalski of Detroit, the Robert Hawkins, Bloomfield Village, the Frank Thompkins of Redford and the G. L. Seiber of Wing Lake.

Last week Mr. and Mrs. John Madlock moved from Bloomfield Village into their new home on Walnut Lake road in Wing Lake Farms. The Madlocks' daughter, Mrs. John, Jr., who is a freshman in dental school at the University of Michigan with the Fargo division of Chrysler, Mrs. Madlock is active in Alpha Omicron Pi.

MOVE TO FOXCROFT

Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Romeny and son, Richard Lawrence, are newly settled in their new home on Crabtree road in Foxcroft. They moved here from Royal Oak. Romeny is a graduate of the University of Florida and is a pharmacist at the Romeny Drug in Royal Oak. Mrs. Romeny attended Wake University and then art school. She was a commercial artist before her marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Tuohy, Lakewood, are planning a home on lower Long Lake. They expect to move in around the first of April when Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kusky, now of Dearborn, will move into the Tuohys' present home. Mr. and Mrs. Kusky who live from Dresden, Germany, have been in this country about a year.

Saturday evening the Tuohys entertained the Kusky's at dinner at the Vineyards. Following dinner they were joined there by neighbors, the Walter Wengrens and Joseph Jutte's.

The party adjourned to the home of the Walter Wengrens, for night-raps and more getting-acquainted conversation.

THURBERS RETURN

Business and pleasure combined to take the Robert Maskells of Thurber road on a three-week trip to California. They returned Feb. 17 having had a glorious trip.

En route to California they stopped at the Pleasant Lake dude ranch near Phoenix, Ariz. Here they visited the Ray Peters of Detroit, who are vacationing there for a month. During their stay the Maskells attended a dude ranch party and danced with wranglers in good old round and square dancing.

Mrs. Maskell's mother and two married sisters live in Beverly Hills. They are Mrs. R. Crooks, Mrs. H. Lutz and Mrs. A. R. Olsen. A day with them included many of night-seeing, shopping and just leisurely rest.

The 18 members of Brownie Troop 184 of Wing Lake school had a toboggan party Feb. 12 at the home of Sharon Noughton on Gilbert lake road. After returning from North Hills golf course where they tobogganed, the Brownies had hot chocolate and cookies at Sharon's home.

To Tour with Play

Miss Barbara Walton and other members of the cast in the Christian college production of "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" will appear in four other cities following the play's run in Columbia. They were joined there by neighbors, the Walter Wengrens and Mrs. C. W. Walton, 880 Yarbrough road, is a member of the lighting crew.
