Too Chilly in Florida, so Cudinis Come Back Home

When you have to wear suits, sweaters and coats to keep warm in Florida, it's time to come home—and that's exactly what Mr. and Mrs. Roger G. Cudini of Lahser road did. They just returned from a three-week vacation at Vero Beach, where they relaxed and visited friends. They also took some side trips down to Miami Beach, Fort Lauderdale and Fort Myers. Although they enjoyed their vacation, the Cudinis were very glad to return to their nice warm home in the Berkshires.

and Mrs. William Ellis, who with their children, Dottie, 3, and Billy, Jr., one-and-one-half, live in Lake-laud. The Ellises spent a week with their son and his family and then drove to St. Petersburg Beach where they stayed at the Norman-dy apartments. From there they made a trip to Key West and Key Largo where they planned to do some deep sea fishing but were unable to do so because of storm warnings.

While in Key Largo they stayed at the Rod and Reel Club. On their way back from the Keys, the Ellises made stops at Miami Beach and Fort Lauderdale before re-turning to Lake-laud to resume the visit with their family. In spite of their snow, they were glad to get home.

SAKI AT OTSEGO

Up at Otsego this week for a little skiing are Mr. and Mrs. Wayne J. Wilson of Oakland drive. It will be Mrs. Wilson's first ven-ture on skis and she hopes to re-turn in one piece. With the Wilsons are Mr. and Mrs. David Rah.

Jan Herro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray J. Herro of 7393 East Green-wich drive, recently enter-tained 25 girls from St. James high school in Fernald, where she has coached basketball this season. Mr. Herro helped entertain the guests by showing sound movies and later in the evening Joan served a buffet luncheon. At the present Joan is a student teacher at Mumford high school in Detroit, where she teaches American history.

Mrs. C. V. DiPietro of West Lincoln gave a bridge luncheon Thursday, Feb. 17 in honor of Mrs. J. L. Newbold of Baltimore, Md. Guests included Mrs. Warner Wolfstop, Mrs. David Levinson and Mr. Oliver McVicker.

On Saturday, February 19 the DiPietro's held a dinner party in their home. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Newbold, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lori, Mr. and Mrs. David Levinson and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver McVicker.

TOBOGGAN PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wink of Old Mill road gave a toboggan party Saturday night, Feb. 19. The couples gathered at the Wink home around 9:00 p.m. and then went over to North Hills Golf Course to try out their toboggans.

Later in the evening they returned to the Winks for a buffet supper of hot chili, salad and lots of hot coffee. Guest were Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fitzgibbons, Mr. and Mrs. Robert James, and Mr. and Mrs. Stan Insley.

The WFNCA will hold a meeting Tuesday, March 1 at the Bir-mingham Community House at 1:00 p.m. Guest speaker, Mrs. William Lowrie, will talk on conservation education, showing color slides of trees, flowers and birds.

Mrs. Lowrie is the past chair-man of conservation in the Bir-mingham branch of the WFNCA and is at present a member of the conservation committee in the Federated Garden clubs of Michi-gan.

There will be a short business meeting at 1:30 p.m. and Mrs. Lowrie's talk will begin at 1:30. Members are urged to attend and to bring guests.

Newcomers to the Berkshires are Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Ludwig and their daughter, Janet of 6805 West Lincoln road. Formerly of Oak Park, they moved into their new home a couple of weeks ago. Janet attends Berkeley high school but plans to transfer to Bir-mingham high at the end of the sem-ester.

The Ludwig family have wide and differing interests. Ludwig likes to invent and is a musician while Mrs. Ludwig's interests are in in-terior decorating and ballroom dancing. Janet enjoys archery and swimming and in her spare time likes to paint. They are members of Forest Lake Country club. Ludwig manufactures air valves.

BRIDAL SHOWER

Mrs. Richard Reason of East Belle Vine trail gave a bridal shower Tuesday evening in honor of Jewel Smith of Detroit. Early in the evening guests played bridal games and later the bride was surprised with a gift of a complete set of Revere ware.

Later Mrs. Reason served a de-licious luncheon and coffee. The table centerpiece was a black bowl with a crystal bird in the center surrounded by pink carnations. Pink candles were used.

Guests included Jewel's mother, Mrs. Sherman Collins, Mrs. Jeanne Mc-ravey, Mrs. Ruth Garretson, Dorothy Hetzel, Dorothy Webb, Mrs. Elaine Hoyt and Mrs. Carolyn Hall. Others were Mrs. Jewel Sum-ner, Mrs. Alice Lonabarger, Mrs. Sally Stroh and Mrs. Nona Syme.

There were hearts and cupid's and a buffet supper, all right, at the Paul Drogger Valentine party in their Jackson Park home a couple of weeks ago, but definitely NO cocktails as the headline accompanying the story would have it. Unless you count tomato juice. Our apologies to Mr. and Mrs. Drogger.
