

Garden

Last Friday night she arranged for a players group from Detroit to give a concert event, and served pie a la mode for the home's children.

THE GARDEN CLUB'S meeting at 1 p.m. Monday will feature a glimpse of the shrubbery and landscaping, contrast to the cover picture that preceded building of the Draper home.

The program is arranged by Mrs. William G. Ferguson, whose plans are for a Valentine tea. Mrs. Howard Harrington is her aid, and pouring will be Mrs. Robert L. Graham, Mrs. Frederick K. Oliver and Mrs. Horace P. Shaw. "Adventure in World Understanding" will be subject of a talk by Mrs. Louise Carpenter of Michigan State college. Mrs. Edgar B. Flint will introduce her and lead discussion later.

Celebration Tea Honors Mother on 80th Birthday

Mrs. Heleña B. Kent celebrated a happy 80th birthday last Sunday when 30 guests of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kipp, honored her at a tea at the Kipp home on Valley Spring road.

Cathy Garkie, daughter of the Roy Carriers, celebrated her 11th birthday last Friday evening in young hostess to 10 schoolmates at a dinner party at her home on Bingham road.

The Mothers' March on Polio in Franklin this year gathered last year's mothers and their daughters in a salute to the mothers who braved the bitter cold last Thursday night to collect $357 for this worthy cause.

ROLL CALL DRIVE

Captains of the Birmingham Community House 1955 "Roll Call Drive" in this area are Mrs. John S. Judd, of Bingham road and Mrs. Paul C. Jackson of Greenwich drive. The campaign runs from Feb. 14-28.

The Paul Ziegler have remodelled and added to their place on Franklin road and so held open house last Saturday night so friends might observe the result. They were dinner hosts to the group and will hold open house again on each of the next three Saturday nights, to accommodate their many friends.

It will be "Family Night" at the Franklin Community church on Friday, Feb. 11, with a potluck supper starting at 6:30.

WELCOME NEIGHBORS

Welcome to Margie Mrs. Joseph McCourt, formerly of Philadelphia, Pa., and settled now in their new place on North Cromwell. Sons Robert, J. and Joseph, and are enrolled in the second and third grades at Franklin school. McCourt, Jr., space representative for Conard-Nast publications.

Newcomers, too, are Mr. and Mrs. E. Nell, here from Dearborn and now in their new home on Franklin Hills drive. The Nells' two children are Sally, 4, and Steve, just 2 years old. Nell is with the Ford Motor Co.

We greet Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Spencer and family, who moved recently from Huntington Woods into their new home on Brandingham drive. Their children are Isabel, 3, Pat, 6, and Michael, 10. Michael is in the 4th grade in the Pat in the first grade at Franklin school. Spencer is with defense operations, Chrysler Corp.

Welcome, too, to Mr. and Mrs. James Robbins, former Detroiters who moved into their new home on Franklin road after a year in Fremont, Ohio. Robbins is with the Dearborn Machinery Works.

SCOUT ACTIVITIES

Mr. Herbert Tarack, Franklin Girl Scout neighborhood chairman, has announced the next three Scout events. First will be the annual father-daughter dinner and party, to be held in the multi-purpose room at Franklin school on Feb. 18. There will be games and an hour of square dancing, with the music and singing graciously supplied by E. C. Dick Lewis.

In charge of this affair is Mrs. T. E. Woodruff, Mrs. Henry Woodruff, Mrs. Henry Woodruff, Mrs. Oliver Garwood and Mrs. Tarack. Other ladies, Mrs. Homer Hyde, Mrs. Elmer Hyde, Mrs. John Lacker and Mrs. Roy Troutland will be responsible for the event.

Girl Scout Sunday falls on Mar. 6. It is customary for the Scouts, and Browning, the 20th anniversary of their organization in uniform on that day and the Franklin Community church invites them to attend the 9:30 a.m. service.

The Girl Scouts annual mother-daughter dinner and program will be held on Mar. 11. Mrs. Frank Taylor, chairman of the event will be assisted by Mrs. V. H. Melvin and all of the leaders, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. McIntosh, Mrs. Connel Shelton, Mrs. Abigail McLaughlin, Mrs. Robert Taylor, Mrs. Oliver Garwood, Mrs. Henry Woodruff and Mrs. David Paley. They are busy rehearsing their songs and songs to be presented after the potluck dinner.

Mrs. Herbert Tarack and daughter, Karen, opened their home on Wing Lake road last Sunday afternoon for a get-acquainted tea for the members and pledges of the Tira club of Birmingham high school and their mothers, entertaining 150 guests.

Married Saturday In New Mexico

Edith Louise Northcott became the bride of William Walker Macdonald at 11 a.m. Saturday in St. James Episcopal church, Mesilla Park, New Mexico. A reception followed in the parish hall. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Eugene Northcott of Mesilla Park. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Harry C. Macdonald of Bloomfield Hills and the late Mr. Macdonald.

FORMAL ATTIRE

She will be honor guest at a luncheon at Mrs. Marcus W. Frost's home on Henrietta. Guests, besides two Grosse Pointers, will be Mrs. William H. Hohmeyer, Mrs. Edward Chapman, and Mrs. James S. Moon.

Miss Cuyler came recently from Belgium where she studied on a Fulbright scholarship and figured in U. of M.'s securing of the Spellfield Music library, a notable collection by a Belgian musician.

Caribbean Cruise

A 16-day Aloca cruise in the Caribbean will extend to several colorful islands, for the Robert Johnstons of South America, as well as the northern coast of South America. The itinerary includes Jamaica, the Dominican Republic, Trinidad, and Caracas, La Guaira, Puerto Cabello and Guanta, all in Venezuela.

Member of Honor Club

Tristram Deforest Coffin has been elected to membership in the Laticlavii, honorary latin club at The Mercersburg Academy in Pennsylvania. Membership in the club is earned by boys who have honor grades in the study of latin.

The honor student is the great, great, grandson of Tristram Coffin, the first governor of Nantucket, and the son of the Dean F. Coffins of Gordon Lane.

College Chums Meet in Germany

Feeds

stayed five days living in a houseboat on the river Jellim. Flying to Agra to visit the Taj Mahal, they went on to Bombay and Ceylon, where they stayed for a week to see that ancient land. They visited many tea plantations high in the mountains and the beautiful gardens in and around Ceylon.

Flight resumed, they went to Bangkok, then to Singapore. At Java they crossed the equator where the plane took several sharp dips to indicate the crossing.

After Singapore and Hong Kong they went Tokyo for two months with Ford's sister and her husband, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Hall. Dr. Hall is a geography professor at the University of Michigan but is working at a research center at Okazama near Kobe, Japan at present.

During their stay in Okazama they were able to learn Japanese customs and traditions. Their girls even took classical Japanese dancing lessons. The whole family has Japanese costumes, complete with Kobe sashes, kimonos and all.

From Kobe, Japan, they sailed Dec. 1, 1954 for America arriving in San Francisco Dec. 16. They stopped at Phoenix, Arizona, to spend Christmas with Mr. Fead's uncle and family.

Home at last, Susan is attending Kingswood and Sally and Beverly are enrolled at Brookside. Eddie, now two and one-half is learning English but most of his spontaneous chatter is still in French. The numerous crates of treasures and adornments brought home with them will combine with the remnants of this world-wide living experience.

Before the Dance

The Robert E. Brittons of Wooddale court, Bloomfield village, will entertain at a formal dance evening, preceding the formal dance given by the Coliseum club of Pontiac, at the Pontiac club ballroom.

The Britton guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Gil Wines and Mrs. Bill Donaldson, Mr. and Mrs. Don Cotterman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles MacDonald and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sampson.

Annual Card Party Planned by MOMS

At the January meeting of the Past Presidents club MOMS, Zone 1, plans were made for the annual card party to be held following the 12-30 p.m. luncheon at the IOOF hall in Ferndale, Feb. 21. Mrs. Harry E. Anderson of Royal Oak was hostess to the group.

Proceeds will go toward the vast project of getting girls through nurses' training.

Guest in Boyne City street, spent the past weekend at Boyne City with Sarah Colbert, Denise Baldwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Baldwin of Harmon of Bloomfield Hills.
