Snow-Covered Hills Lure Tobogganing Sixth Graders

A snow covered hill, a bright brisk winter day and 25 boys and girls spelled heaps of fun at the toboggan party Kathy Naughton gave for members of the Wing Lake Sixth grade Saturday, Jan. 29.

After two hours of sliding down, trudging up to slide back down the hill at North Hills golf course all "nearly starved," crossed the road to Kathy's home where they consumed gallons of hot chocolate and numerous "sloppy-jos". Kathy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Naughton, of Gilbert Lake road.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Schweppe, of Cottonville lane, were hosts to their bridge club for a potluck dinner and bridge Saturday evening, Jan. 29. Other couples participating were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Traas, of Jackson Park boulevard; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Finney, of Highland Park; and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hornor, of Bloomfield Village.

A memory of winter's fun to take on a vacation to a tropical climate was given Mr. and Mrs. Bill Johnstone, of Detroit, when they honor guests at a cocktail dinner and ice skating party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Rowe, Timber Lake drive, Friday evening, Jan. 21.
