'On Schedule' with Overpass at 8 Mile

Construction of the $3 1/2 million Eight Mile and Woodward ave. overpass is proceeding on schedule, any traffic delays will be kept at a minimum, the Michigan state highway department has informed the Oakland Citizens League.

PROJECT construction reports, the department informed the league, indicate that more than 15 percent of work has already been completed. Construction started on Sept. 2, 1954 and is due to be completed Dec. 15, 1955.

"Because adequate streets for re-routing traffic around this project are not available, the work is necessarily being performed in a number of stages during each of which traffic to be carried on temporary roads which cannot remain in one place but must be shifted at the work progress," the league was informed.

First major aim is to complete the portion of the work which will carry Woodward avenue through traffic over Eight Mile road. What follows is to be completed, all Woodward avenue traffic will pass over the elevated

Talk on Turnpike

FRANKLIN — Steps to open the proposed Michigan Turnpike Authority, a bill read through the village will be the main topic of discussion at a regular meeting of the village council Monday night, Jan. 17, at 8 p.m. A study committee appointed to investigate the highway is expected to report its findings.

Ask Disconnection of Personal Property Taxes Due Jan. 20

11 Subdivisions

SOUTHFIELD — Personal property taxes on furniture and fixtures and inventories of businesses must be paid by the January 20 deadline set by state law. After that date the township treasurer may commence payment.

A FEW OF the newer subdivisions that were included in the first list do not have connected downspouts to any sewer system but the ordinance will prevent any future connections until a time when adequate storm sewers are installed in the areas.

Crash Results In Drunk Charges

TROY — Two youths, injured slightly in an accident Saturday night on John R one-quarter mile south of 16 Mile in Troy townships, Tuesday night got 30-day jail sentences on drunk and disorderly charges.
