

Bloomfield Club Elects New Staff

New officers were elected when the Bloomfield Hills branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association met Monday afternoon.

Mrs. J. Hawley Otis was chosen to the presidency of the branch, taking the post of Mrs. Leroy Vandever.

Her staff includes Mrs. Edward S. Wallack, first vice-president; Mrs. Edgar B. Pitt, second vice-president; Mrs. John D. Tebbin, recording secretary; Mrs. James I. Ford, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Frederick C. Jaynes, treasurer.

The annual meeting followed a showing of colorful photographs of Hawaii by William Smith of Opdyke road, Bloomfield Hills.

Later, members gathered in the sunlit dining room where Mrs. Leslie H. Green and Mrs. Earl A. Thompson poured coffee and tea at silver services. Pastel snapdragons were the centerpiece.

Mrs. W. G. Ferguson's committee had planned the reception, composed of tiny cream puffs filled with creamed chicken, and crisp cinnamon rolls.

Two Girls, Father, Return From Sun Valley Skiing

Just back from Sun Valley where they saw many movie stars and the Shah of Iran are Rosalie Rie, Arlene Arlt and Rosalie's father, Sigurd O. Rie.

The two girls, both Birmingham High school seniors, were enthusiastic about skiing, but it is Rie who came back with a star and badge awarded for descent of Dollar mountain and Binky without any spills in the snow.

Seelie of the Shah, and his 40 body guards, Van Johnson, Gary Cooper, Gary Crosby and other celebrities added to the trip from Dec. 31 to Jan. 19 for the group. Arlene is the daughter of the Defense Program Slated by PTA

The January meeting of the Oakland County Council PTA will be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the Pentiac Lake school, located at Williams Lake road and Gale road in Waterford township.

Following a business meeting will be a program arranged by Mrs. John Warren entitled "School in Civil Defense." Assisting in the program will be Mrs. George Ehrlich, district director of Civil Defense, Mildred Bennett of the Red Cross, and Randolph Bromley, acting Civil Defense director of Oakland County.

The program will show how to start and build up an active Civil Defense group in all areas.

Family Dinner Reveals Troth

At a family dinner party at Rotoford Inn, Mr. and Mrs. E. Neil Brannan of Lathrup Village announced the engagement of their daughter, Lou, to Norman Richard Magel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman H. Magel of Goldenacre, Detroit.

Lou is a junior at Michigan State college where she is affiliated with Delta Gamma. Dick, stationed in Boston with the Navy, will attend Michigan State in the fall.

No immediate wedding plans have been made.
