

Grooming Expert Teaching Scouts

This week Bloomfield Village Girl Scout troop 378 had Mrs. Jeffers, "Good Grooming" expert of Birmingham, at their meeting. The Girl Scouts are taking a six weeks course on good grooming. Last week they worked on poise.

Second Grade, Miss Jones, Susan Sternberg moved to Franklin. We have been making snow pictures and learning about the weather.

Third Grade, Ross Selvidge is our president. Sue Henry and Jack String are our good citizens this week. We made snowflake abstract designs in Art class.

Fourth Grade, The good citizens are Sharzyk, Steve and Jerry Purdy. We are learning about one of the greatest Americans, Benjamin Franklin. We are working on booklets about him which will be finished by his birthday, January 17.

Student Congress Campaigns Start

With the third marking period coming to a close, Birmingham high school students again turn their attention to the second semester Student Congress elections.

Petitions were issued last Monday and will be signed throughout the week with the actual campaigning scheduled to start next Monday.

This semester the campaigning will be quite different. Candidates will be restricted to not more than one banner and five posters. There will be no other advertisement on the walls of the school or school grounds other than the traditional tags with each candidate's name and slogan.

There also will be a five dollar limit on each person's campaign. The voting will take place next Friday after a political rally in the morning in which each candidate and his campaign manager will express views.

Retiring first semester officers are Ed Peters, president; Dick Morgan, vice president; Betty Quillan, secretary; and Bill Neumann, treasurer.

Attend Annual Landscape Meeting

Four areal landscape gardeners firms were represented at the fourth annual Landscape Gardeners conference January 6-7 at Michigan state college.

Elliot Coryell, Coryell Nurseries; Robert P. Davis, Landscape Contractor, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Flannery, Flannery Nursery; Joe F. Beske, Birmingham Landscape Service; and Joe E. Beske, Thompson Landscape, attended the meetings sponsored by the Michigan Landscape Conference and the MSC Department of Horticulture.

Need Terrace Zone, Developer Says

Southwest corner of Redding and Woodward must be rezoned if terrace units are to be constructed, according to a petition received by the city commission and referred to the plan board for study.

Part of the area now is zoned for business, part for multiple dwellings.

Owner Samuel Frankel also has requested vacation of an alleyway and relocation of a sidewalk.

Ralph Crawford Now ROTC Staff Sergeant

Ralph Crawford, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Crawford, 1628 E. Maple Rd., was recently promoted to the grade of cadet staff sergeant in the Air Force ROTC at Michigan College of Mining and Technology.

His promotion was announced by the commanding officer of the Air Force ROTC at the College.

Crawford, a sophomore, is majoring in metallurgy at Tech. He is a graduate of the Birmingham High School.
