Wing Lake Brother, Sister Win Sun Valley Award

Jay and Amy Miller are even more proficient on skis than they themselves realized. The award they won recently at Sun Valley is coveted and highly respected. It is usually accomplished by much more practiced skiers. The award originates at Sun Valley and is won by sking a certain area at a given speed. The award itself is a pair of silver skis with a silver sun dangling from it.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Miller and their four children, Jay, 15, Amy, 12, Marc, 8 and Roy, 5, vacationed Dec. 29 to Jan. 4 at Sun Valley. All skied even to little Roy. Christmas eve all of the instructors and mountain patrols, about 75, came down the mountain on skis, bearing red flags and high over head. Mrs. Miller says it was one of the most spectacular sights she has ever seen. Santa Claus seemed also to have come down the mountain as he was seated in his sleigh in the village square which all attention was turned there. He gave candy to all the children.

New Year's eve was complete with separate dances for adults and teenagers. Guests recently entertained at the Forest Lake country club and dinner dance by Dr. and Mrs. Tom Stewart were the Fred Balls, Sunningdale, Dr. and Mrs. Joe Montante, Rosedale Park, Dr. and Mrs. Barron, Union Lake and Dr. and Mrs. Hill, Walnut Lake.

Friends and neighbors of Kathryn Fisk, Sherringham, will be happy to know that she is recovering nicely from her recent accident. Her badly bruised foot is expected to return to light duty in about ten days.

Mrs. George W. Mack of Lantern Pine and two sisters, Mrs. K. W. Stroube and Mrs. R. L. Gronow, both of Birmingham and brother, Mr. O. A. Martin, Clawson, have just completed a whirl of reunions and parties.

The reason for all this celebration was the holiday visit of their brother, Ernest W. Martin, from Seattle, Wash., whom none of them had seen in 30 years.

G.S. TROOP 415
