

EUGENE LIST

Concert Group Lists Next Guest Artist

One of the world's outstanding young pianists, Eugene List, will be presented in a concert Jan. 24 by the South Oakland County Community Concert Association. He will be heard at 8:15 p.m. in Royal Oak's high school auditorium. List's achievements include some 30 appearances with the New York Philharmonic and numerous engagements with such other orchestras as those of Boston, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, San Francisco, New Orleans, Kansas City and Pittsburgh. List, a native of Philadelphia, grew up in California, but began his career in his native city, where, at the age of 16, he won a contest sponsored by the Philadelphia orchestra. He had just completed three years' study with Alfred Sennaroff.

HIS INITIAL Swedish laughter him an invitation to play with the Philharmonic symphony of New York under Kleiber. His Carnegie Hall debut in 1935 launched a career that was brilliantly established when, interrupted by Pearl Harbor in December 1941, a list which included the following: March, and a staff second in special services, was eventually assigned to the European theater. In 1942 he played a commendable performance at Potsdam for "The Big Three" and won the enthusiastic admiration of all three international leaders.

DISCHARGED IN 1946, List's postwar achievements include two extensive European tours, annual tours of high society and Canada, recordings, radio and television appearances and a featured role in motion pictures. His latest accomplishment is a

People's Column

Thank You, Sir, For Your Kind Compliment!

To the Editor: I received your invoice for our 1955 subscription to The Birmingham Eccentric. It was a pleasure to forward a check covering this amount, and I am dropping you a note to tell you how much we enjoyed your paper.

It is the most friendly paper with a local atmosphere that I have ever had the pleasure of reading. Your thoughtful, interesting articles to the community and within it are a joy to read. I am sure that we were welcome and that there were many other new families who were anxious of making new friends and acquaintances.

AFTER OUR experience, it is little wonder to us that you received high national honors for your achievements in being the nation's community paper.

We just wanted you to know that we feel that the honors were well placed.

BRIGHT SUN and a frozen pond—what could be better? A group of youngsters, with a few dogs to add to the excitement, made a busy picture on a small pond near Charing Cross road Sunday as they took advantage of good ice and a sparkling winter's day. While small folks slipped and tumbled on one section of the pond, more adept skaters staged an impromptu hockey game, some speed skating and a bit of fancy footwork in other areas. Flashing smiles, red cheeks and happy shouts gave evidence as to just how much the day was being enjoyed. (Eccentric Photo)
