Curling Fans Participate In International Tournament

The ancient art of curling, at one time known as a Scottish and Canadian game, but now well participated in by our countrymen, has some rabid fans in the Walnut Lake area. One veteran supporter and player of the sport is Stewart Underhill, of North-Climbury road, building commissioner for West Bloomfield township and Orchard Lake Village.

During the international tournament held the week of Jan. 3, the Detroit Curling club pinned its hopes on Underhill's rink, consisting of Underhill, skip, Dr. Top Harner, vice-skip David Hunter, second, and Carl Troganah, Birmingham attorney, lead. They were the last Michigan team to be eliminated, going down to defeat in the finals on Saturday, Jan. 8.

Underhill, who curls every Tuesday evening and Sunday morning at the clubhouse, on the corner of Forest and Sixth, in Detroit, will compete in Quebec the latter part of the month, and plans to attend tournaments in Sarnia, Chatham and Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gould, of Comfort, drive, are also members of the Detroit Curling club, whose Gould curls on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons. Mrs. Gould joins the ladies' curling on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons.

On alternate Friday evenings, they join the husband and wife teams, after which they enjoy a late supper at the club. During the international events, they entertained guests from Chicago, who were in town for the bonspiel, and in February are planning to journey to Chicago with the local team competing there.

WALNUT LAKE PTA.
"This Fascinating Michigan" was the topic of the program given before the Walnut Lake school PTA Monday, Jan. 10. Holding the interested attention of the audience was Miss Helen Martin, from the geological division of the Michigan State Conservation Department.

Representatives from the Garden and Science club of the school were present to answer questions regarding exhibits which the club had made in connection with the program; and girls of Scout Troop 300 attended the meeting to secure material for work on their conservation badge.

Also on the program, Dr. D. N. Aiken gave a talk on the importance of and need for whole blood. Hostesses for the evening were the kindergarten room mothers, Mrs. William Lutz, Mrs. Clinton Bassell, Mrs. Robert Jorits and Mrs. Richard Maddren.

At a recent party at the Edward Sinta home on Walnut Lake road,

The names of two neighborhood men are in the news these days as Chrysler corporation announces that Wesley G. Embury, of Eastmoor road, in the Braes of Bloomfield, has been made purchasing agent for the Plymouth division, and Wendell Moore, of South Clumbury road, in Bloomfield Farms, has been made advertising manager of the Dodge division.

WALNUT LAKE WNFGELECTS OFFICERS

At a January meeting at the home of Mrs. John A. Bell, on Putnam avenue, the Walnut Lake branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association elected officers for the coming year.

Its new president will be Mrs. E. S. Maund, vice president, Mrs. J. A. Bell, secretary, Mrs. Cass Brovarney, and treasurer, Mrs. Robert L. Smith. Installation of new officers will be in May.

WINTER CAMP-OUT

Girl Scout Troop 300 spent the weekend of Jan. 7, 8 and 9 at the staff house at Camp Narrin, in the Southern Oakland County Girl Scout camp near Orionville.

Mrs. James B. Roberts and Mrs. Julia Hoffman, co-leaders, and Scouts Margaret Roberts, Mary Ellen Davis, Laura Szymke, Kay Graham, Rosalind Latham, Karen Maddren, Estella Quick, Jewel Oppensten, Joan Smith and Janet Roberts, all were in the group, whose main purpose was to make bird feeders to hang in the trees at the camp.

All their cooking was done in the huge indoor stone fireplace, and the girls enjoyed a treasure hunt and winter sports, finishing skating by moonlight the next day.

This troop is still working on the Red Cross course which is being given to them at Barnum school.

will sponsor a series of five lessons in square dancing on alternate Thursdays, beginning Feb. 10, from 8:00 to 10:00 p.m. Anyone in the area interested in learning to square dance, contact Otis Zahn, Inkster road, or Stewart Schultz, Walnut Lake road.

Mrs. Parker Rockwell, of Putnam avenue, will attend a meeting of the Water Resources Commission held in the Veteran's Memorial building in Detroit today. Mrs. Rockwell is a representative of the Southern Oakland County Council of the League of Women Voters. The commission is meeting to decide whether or not suit will be instituted against areas which have been cited for pollution.

WELCOME NEIGHBORS

Have you met Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hayward, residents of the new Westwood Village subdivision, who live on Northfield road? The couple moved here from Steel avenue, in Detroit. They have a son, Jeffrey, eight years old, who attends country day school, in Detroit.

Howard is an attorney, and Mrs. Hayward is a professional singer, who works under the name of Jane Fulton on WJL radio and television shows. The family has just returned from a month's vacation in California, during which time they visited relatives in Los Angeles, and spent the remaining time in Palm Springs.

Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Ivan V. Hill, of East Dartmouth road, who moved into their new home in December, from their former home on Piedmont avenue, in Detroit.

The couple have two married children, a daughter, Mrs. M. P. Forhan, who lives on North Clumbury road, and a son whose home is in Detroit. Hill uses his spare time to paint, in both water colors and oils, and Mrs. Hill is a painter, having now over 400 in her collection.

The group's current project is roading and potting plants. They have painted their own pots, and have started cuttings in water. When these cuttings have roots, the girls will pot them and present the plant to their mothers.

Nibbles at this meeting were furnished and served by Sandy Stevenson. Co-leaders Mrs. Robert Stevenson and Mrs. Murray were assisted by Troop committee members Mrs. Otis Fockler and Mrs. Stanley J. Turge.

The Guidance committee of the Cub Scout Pack-28 of Royal Oak met at Upton school to plan the regular Pack meeting to be held Jan. 28. Skits and stunts in a railroading theme have been chosen.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Swart of Crowland avenue spent the weekend in Chicago where they went to the automobile show and visited Mrs. Swart's grandmother, Mrs. Bettie Wood.

New residents in Cooper avenue are the Warfield Graves, who formerly lived in Emporia, Kan. They have the Michael Malone house now that the Malones are established in Cleveland.

Monday evening the Woodward Hills branch of the Garden Club met at the home of the O. N. Bensons on Olivia avenue. In February they plan a joint meeting with the Royal Oak Garden Club.

Parker school pre-school mothers did not have a meeting this week but plan a special meeting for Feb. 1. At that time they will make plans for the annual fashion show and bridge.

Upton pre-school mothers heard Philip J. Lamy, Jr., M. D. Wednesday evening at their regular meeting.

Vince E. Gresson, D.D.S., and Dr. J. Howard, M.D., spoke to the regular Upton PTA meeting. Dr. Howard, a pediatrician at Henry Ford Hospital, discussed the advances made in infant care during the past 30 years. Dr. Gresson, whose office is in Royal Oak, showed slides to illustrate the development of children's teeth.

A report on the local program was given to the membership by Mrs. Clara Hellenberg, Mrs. Mary Lee Hawkes, who visited the United Nations organization during December, discussed her impressions.

Following, there was a round table on international trade, in charge of Mrs. O. S. Koskinen. Participating were Mrs. Campbell Harvey, Mrs. Sylvester Tryball, Mrs. Jack Couzens and Mrs. Arthur Schuler.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.
