House Plants Discussed At Garden Club Meeting

At the Wing Lake branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association meeting, held Jan. 10 at the home of Mrs. John Doyle, North Worthington, Mrs. Edgar DeBant, a member of the club, spoke on house plants.

She had skillfully compiled a wealth of material and organized it in such a way that all kinds and types of house plants, their uses, peculiarities and needs were concisely and intelligently presented. Following her talk, the material was available to members for specific reference.

Mrs. Ralph Darling, president, presided over the business meeting. Each member presented a copy of the constitution and by-laws and Mrs. Williams Warner read for the group.

Presiding at the tea table was Mrs. Edward Carroll and Mrs. R. E. Bohner.

Mrs. and Mrs. Calvin W. Patterson, East Surrey, will entertain an evening cocktail party Jan. 22 honoring Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Fead, Orchard Way.

The Feads and their four children have been living abroad for the past two years. Their return to their home in Foxcroft is being marked by many welcoming parties.

Please contact your area's Correspondent for the Eccentric, whose name and telephone number appears at the top of this column, with news you would like to have published.

Next Saturday evening, the Halls will be dinner hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Clare Dawson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Joyner and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Thompson of Birmingham. Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres will be served and bridge will be the order of the evening.

The Nurnes are true enthusiasts of this winter sport and are planning to return to Okeoke this weekend for more of this exhilarating sport.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

Cocktail Parties Will Precede Community Association's Ball

With the Community Association's annual President's Ball coming up next week Friday night, several cocktail parties, to precede the ball, are in the making.

The association president and his lady, Mrs. and Mrs. Jack Roberts, will entertain committee chairmen and their wives at cocktails before they leave for the dinner and dance at Bonnie Brook Country club.

The Don Greens will have a group of friends for cocktails at their home on Nottingham drive. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mitchell will be hosts to 20 guests at their place on Riverwood drive prior to the affair.

Among those attending the Marjoram in New York this week are Franklins Mr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Muehler, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis J. Premo, Mr. and Mrs. Huel Starr, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Rummel and the George Altmanbergers.

The Ellis Premos and their children Carol and Bill head north almost every weekend now for skiing, usually at Caberfae lodge near Cailliar.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Roberts moved last Monday to their new address on North Greenlawn.

The A. B. Newlands were hosts when the Discussion group met at their place on Crestwood drive last Sunday night.

Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Emrick who moved here recently from Royal Oak and are now settled in their new home on Appletree lane. Daughter Patricia, 16, attends Shrine high school and the Emricks have a son, Walter, just 13 months old. Emrick is in the floor decorating business in Royal Oak.

The ladies of the Evening Circle are to meet for their January meeting at 8:15 tonight at the home of Mrs. Roy Troutland, 31250 Inokter road. Unusual second meeting on California will be shown after the business session. Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. D. J. Crawford, Mrs. Leslie Fraser and Mrs. Jack Roberts.

Girl Scout Troop 377 will hold a bake sale at the Franklin Community hall this Saturday, starting at 10:00 a.m. and continuing until everything is sold. Proceeds from the sale will be used to help finance a trip to Chicago planned by the Scouts.

The Franklin Community Association will hold a business meeting at the hall at 8:00 p.m. next Monday, Jan. 21, to discuss the turnpike which threatens to cut through the east end of our incorporated area.

Girl Scout leaders and committee chairmen will meet at the Franklin Community church at two o'clock next Tuesday afternoon to make plans for the father-daughter banquet to be held in February. The mother-daughter Juliette Lowe birthday party at some later date, and to cover other business at hand.

The commissioners of the Franklin Volunteer Fire department held a special meeting at the home of Chief Bill Jones last Tuesday night, in part to make plans for the forthcoming night school firemanship.

The volunteers will study the chemistry of fire, fire fighting tactics and methods, and details pertaining to local and mutual aid operations of the department.
