To the Editor:
 Thank you so very much for the generous publicity your paper afforded us for the Christmas masses. As you know, our parish is very new and many people who live within the boundaries are dependent upon your paper for announcements and news of St. Bede. The appreciation of our people cannot be measured in words for your good services. Therefore, you will have to rest assured that they are thankful for your fine cooperation.

Sunday Dinner Goodness

In "the good old days" Sunday Dinner was the highlight of the week. Today, thanks to modern methods in which A&P pioneered, Americans enjoy Sunday Dinner variety every day in the week.

Any time you shop at your A&P you'll find various high-grade meats cut to present day demands. You'll see loads of luscious fruits and vegetables, delectable dairy products. Lined goods with that fresh-from-the-oven flavor, everything you can think of in endless variety—all at your finger tip—all reasonably priced!

No wonder smart people these days depend on A&P for all their food needs. Come see, come save, at A&P!

A&P—Thrift Headquarters for Millions—calling housewives everywhere! Please stand by for an important announcement. National Thrift Week starts Monday. Its slogan is "Be Alert to Good Living." "Save on Schedule!" Just what does that slogan mean? It means that in order to get wide money for the many necessities and luxuries that add up to good living, you should set up a schedule for saving. Once you've done that, S.O.S.—save on schedule! How? One of the best ways is to market regularly where you can be sure of getting the most for your money. Where? At your A&P. Why? Because that's where you get more low prices on more items, more days of the week. Come see, come save at A&P, where every week is Thrift Week. That is all. Come in, please, housewives!

COME SEE—COME SAVE AT A&P!
