

MR. AND MRS. BERNARD GIRARD, 390 Waddington road, left San Francisco, Calif., last Monday aboard the SS Lurline for a vacation in Hawaii.

West Beverly

Anna McClary MI 6-4342

The fashion show and luncheon held Wednesday, Jan. 19 at the Birmingham Country club attracted many West Beverly residents. Mrs. Ken McQueen, Mrs. Lee Durham and Mrs. William Paddison were guests of Mrs. Charles Vogel. Guests of Mrs. J. T. Dorough were Mrs. Richard Shouler, Mrs. Leland Rosemont and Mrs. William Gimman. With Mrs. George Curley were Mrs. John Powers, Mrs. Vern Proctor, Mrs. Thomas Ellis, Mrs. G. S. Dettlinger and Mrs. Harold Kan Horne.

Many tropical costumes were featured and what women can expect to see in spring and summer fashions were modeled after the luncheon.

Girl Scout and Brownie Troop leaders, 30 in all met at the Birmingham Community House Jan. 18 for a planning session. They are looking forward to an important meeting in March when they will celebrate the birthday of their founder, Juliette Lewis, March 12, 1912 is the date which marks the beginning of the first Girl Scout group in the U. S.

The Wallace Cummings of Baltimore road and his wife, a four-day trip to Grayling. They were accompanied by her sister-in-law, Mrs. James Leach and visited their aunt, Mrs. Vera Cummings, who returned with them to Birmingham.

The thing of paramount interest to Mr. and Mrs. Cummings just now is a purchase they received from Stuttgart, Germany whose their son, Richard Lee is now attending. They are happy to learn that he is pleasantly located in the command building of the West General Staff section. His work will consist of correspondence of the Commanding General and General's staff. He will remain there 18 months.

Saturday evening, Jan. 22 the members of the Riverside Dance club laid aside their cares and best dancing clothes, to appear in the most unusual and unique. Two prizes were given in each separate class and were won as follows: For the fanciest costume, John Hughes and Jack Conner; the oldest, Ethel Jones and Jerry Donough; the prettiest, Barbara Long and Gordon Applequist; the most original, (both to one couple) Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Lester and last, "the one you would least likely want to be caught dead in," was won by Bud Dettlinger and Henrietta Bird.

AAUW BOOK GROUP
The Book group of the AAUW

Number of 1844 Hillcrest. There were 38 guests, including Mr. Irvine's mother, Mrs. A. S. Irvine, and Mrs. Irvine's grand-mother, Mrs. Charles Kinker, both of Litchfield, Ill.

An elaborate luncheon was served in which a complete color scheme of green and yellow was carried out from chrysanthemums to table appointments. Many beautiful gifts were received by the honored guest. A cassette labeled with daintily wrapped packages was wheeled in and presented to Mrs. Irvine.

Most people who take vacations this time of year are headed south, but Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dittich of 1909 Chelsea have as guests the Hugh Corrigan, who have left their home at sunny Vero Beach Fla. and come up to enjoy the winter sports of Michigan.

Mrs. Corrigan, Mr. Hugh Corrigan III, and their sons Hugh IV, and Edwin, will go from here to Upper Straits to visit Mr. and Mrs. Don Quirk, where they will attend a skating party.

Don't forget the "March of Dimes", one of our worthiest causes. After reading this, be sure to turn your front light on Thursday night between seven and eight. Our Beverly Hills women are working hard to put over this Follo drive. They are ably led by their captain Mrs. Leland Rosemont and her assistants, Mrs. S. R. Anderson and Mrs. T. S. Pritchard and block chairman.
