Skiers from Area Drawn To Otsego Ski Club Slopes

Otsego Ski club was the headquarters for several of Bloomfield Village families the weekend of Jan. 15. The junior Charles F. Duryea of Yarmouth road journeyed to Gaylord with his three children Sue, Mary and Chuckie. Also in the party were their neighbors, the Robert Fifes and children Pam, Bobbie and Katie.

They reported that it was a perfect weekend for skiing. "It's real skier's delight," with several inches of fresh snow on the ground. "The older of the Duryeas and Adams are children took to their skis while the younger ones had a great time frolicking in the snow, making sleds, and watching the others ski."

Other Bloomfield Village families the Duryeas and Fifes spent on the slopes at Otsego were Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Adams with their sons Fred, Richard and Robert; Mr. and Mrs. William Lechen and their four children; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Emmett and three children; Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Dibvig; and the William Parkers with their son, Billy.

Mrs. Nell W. Hyde, Mrs. George Souter, Mrs. L. G. Robinson, and Mrs. Stanley Maxson attended the luncheon meeting of the Junior Women's association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra at Balford Inn on Jan. 19. Mrs. Souter is recording secretary for the group.

NEW ARRIVALS

A couple of new voices to be heard in the Village are those of Debra Ellen Zwally and Thomas Ross Souter.

Debra is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Lee Zwally of 312 Hupp Cross road. She was born Dec. 12 in New Grace hospital and weighed 6 lbs. 13 oz. She has a brother, Davey, four years old and a sister Barbara, nine years old. Thomas is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Souter of 616 Yarmouth road. He was born Jan. 19 in New Grace hospital and has a sister Janie Jo, one year and a brother Mike, 20 months.

Mrs. Henry T. Schlicher was hostess to the St. Mary's Guild of Holy Name church Jan. 19, when about 20 members of the group met in her Yarmouth road home for dessert and coffee. Sewing card pads was the project for the evening. Mrs. Frank Lynch has recently been selected as the Guild's new chairman.

WELCOME-NEIGHBORS
A big, hearty welcome to the many families who have moved to Bloomfield Village in the past few months.

Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Adams recently moved from Washington boulevard in Birmingham to their new home at 325 Overhill road.

They have five children, Fred, Jr., 10, Richard 9, Robert 5, Sally 3 and Holly 2. Dr. Adams is a well known pediatrician in Birmingham and holds his M.D. from Adams and active and enthusiastic skier, bowler, and skater.

In the fall Mr. and Mrs. Fred Matthaeri moved to 576 Cottingham road from Stanley boulevard in Birmingham. They have three children age Freddy 5, Julie 3 and Mary 1. Matthaeri is associated with American Metal Products.

From Cleveland Heights, Ohio comes the Dr. J. Kresl. They moved to their Ambley road home in December. They have three children, Ricky, 12, Bob, 8, and Judy, 5. All attend Bloomfield Village school.

Kresl is division manager of the Detroit Controls Corp. Both he and Mrs. Kresl graduated from Case Western Reserve University where he was affiliated with Phi Kappa Psi and she with Psi Beta.

Recently moving to Bradley boulevard are Mr. and Mrs. Richard O. Straight and their children, Jeff, 8, Susan, 6, and 18-month-old twins, Bobbie and Jamie. Straight is with the Cargill Detroit Co.

Other new residents on Bradley boulevard are the Robert J. Fishers who moved here in January from White Plains, N. Y. They have two children, 11-year-old Jeffrey and 7-year-old Elizabeth. Mr. Fisher is advertising manager of the Lincoln Mercury division of the Ford Motor Co. Both he and Mrs. Fisher attended Syracuse university where he was affiliated with Phi Gamma Delta and she with Kappa Kappa Gamma.

GIRL SCOUTS 279
Mrs. John Larkins and Mrs. Martin Kotter, leaders of Girl Scout Troop 279, report that the scouts are showing a great deal of interest and enthusiasm in their latest project. They are being instructed in a six week "Modeling and Good Grooming" course by Mrs. Fred Jeffers of Birmingham. The girls are looking forward to participating in a fashion show of their own when they complete
