Guests Entertain Preceding Hobo Costume Party at Club

Dr. and Mrs. Tom Stewart, Sunningdale, entertained several couples preceding the Forest Lake Country club dinner dance Saturday. After cocktails at the Stewarts, the party proceeded to the hobo costume party.

Many of the costumes were extremely clever reported the Stewarts. Mrs. Cyril Geymann, both of arts and special entertainers, the "Chicks" formerly with Fred Waring and recent winners on Art Godfrey's Talent show, combined to make this one of the season's outstanding parties.

Guests of the Stewarts were Mr. and Mrs. Aurel Boyer and Mr. and Arthur Crabbs, father, who lives with the Crabbs, decided to dodge the Michigan winter and is now in Eustis, Fla. for five weeks visiting old friends, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Evans. From there he will go to Los Angeles, Calif. for two months to visit his sister, Mrs. William Babcock.

Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Brydell and son Gary drove to Kokomo, Ind. recently where they spent the weekend visiting their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Connors.

WELCOME NEWCOMERS

Please contact your area's Correspondent for The Eccentric, whose name and telephone number appears at the top of this column, with news you would like to have published.

At a dinner party given by her parents, her guests were her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon O. Rice and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Grissom, both of Detroit and little brother, Michael, two years old.

At the dinner Susan received a large birthday cake with name and candles and many nice gifts.

GEORGIA VISITOR

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Elliott, Thurber road, entertained at their weekend guest, Allen Siebert of Atlanta, Ga. Siebert is Chevrolet auditor for General Motors.

He had never seen a lake frozen over in the winter so anxiously tried his down. But it was all in fun and he was greatly impressed with wonderful winter sports possible here.

Mr. Richard Elliott, interior decorator, recently visited the semi-annual decorators' show at Merchandise Mart, Chicago. She purchased new merchandise in carpeting and draperies for the store where she is employed. Mrs. Elliott has been attending this show for many years, so although there is a lot of work involved, she always enjoys meeting many old friends and associates—even classmates from decorator school.

Dr. and Mrs. Fred Fleming, East Surrey, son John, with girl friend Barbara DeLong, of Birmingham and Mr. and Mrs. Warner Wolfson, Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Jesson, of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. LeVinson, Birmingham, all attended the Ridgeville Players current play, "The Male Animal" Friday night. John's special guests to this party were Dan Nesbitt and fiancée, Marilyn Smith of West Long Lake road.

Saturday evening John Fleming and friend, Barbara DeLong, gave a dinner party for Dan Nesbitt and Marilyn Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Shapler of Detroit, and Mrs. Doug was discharged from the army one month ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Carr, Franklin road, Wing Lake Farms will attend the annual President's Ball of the Franklin Community Association.

Paul Kovack, 12, Franklin road, had a skating party recently with Douglas Croun, Dick Tiede, Michael Whittaker and Jimmy and Joe Malhot his guests.

After skating the boys enjoyed supper together and then spent the evening experimenting with harmless boy's interests like electricity and motors.

A small neighborhood dessert luncheon was given last week by Virginia Stewart, Sunningdale, to introduce her new next-door neighbor, Vivian Landwig. Guests were, Shirley Weimer, Elaine Allen, Marge Ball, Marion Daugier, Ruth Latross and Frances Knosel.

About this time every year the birthdays in the William Warner family, Thurber road, start rolling. First comes daughter's, Mrs. Sally McEllock of Birmingham and then three days later, her husband's, Bruce McEllock.

A full family dinner was in force both Sunday and Wednesday of last week for these two while their 1-year-old daughter Linda was in her glory blowing out candles and helping to unwrap gifts.

Several more birthdays follow this month and next. To be continued.
