Birmingham Hi-Society

By Noel Stokely
A party in honor of David Hale, British C&P cardist, was given at Fred Shinnick's home recently. Barb Noyes, Pat Pagel, Judy Combs, Bill Heyner, Bob Owen, Harvey Ellison, Emily Schuster, Dorothy Schwimmer, Ruth Hibbard, Carolyn Cooper, Joyce Kerley and Fred Gospiand and enjoyed themselves till all hours of the afternoon.

Plans are in the making for the CTA-FIS joint picnic meeting early in February. The house will be provided by Frank Mabey and an informal buffet will precede the entertainment provided by the pledges of both clubs.

In preparation for the Spanish club's potluck dinner, Mary Louise Smith and Donna Lee Watts have been named co-chairmen of the food committee. Spanish food ranging from tortillas to chili will spice the menu. Yvonne Mealey will provide the house, and Emily Schuster and Sharon Ellison will work on programs.

The auctioneer's gavel got a workout recently at a CTA open house and auction. Milling around among the tense buyers were Don Fraser, Walt Hendrich, Jim Leach, Pat Madsen, Bill Kattison, Tom Beck, Jim Mosley, Dick Sheldon, Dave Gibbons, Bill Dove, Nancy Yarnall, Ann Seymour, Pat Nyberg, Bev Negri, Joe Carkner, Nancy McKenzie, Ann Willett, Aline Van Kirk, Maureen Garwood, Jean Boettner and Mary Wilson.

Also trembling under the gaze of Midge Clark, auctioneer, were Carole Negre, Margie Runy, Gretchen Guck, Doug Lewis, Noel Stokely, Frank McMillan, Don Laird, Connie Shroyer, Barbara Stinson and Sharon Byers.

At Jay Lewis's date party after a recent basketball game, were Andy Fairbanks, Dede Williams, George Huffman, Ethyl Roehm, Ed Leavenworth, Kitten James, Don Haugh, Carol Orr, Greg Bovis, Ning Slavson and Jay and his date Sandy Salmer.

Among the couples at Ruth Ann Huffman's date party were Ed Gierok, Annett LeMessier, Bob Sawyer, Pat Henry, Bruce Janet Fay, Doug Lewis, Jill Purdy, Dick Pease, Leslie Stevens, Bill Neuman, Leon Cookery, Dick Lee, Janie Hudson, Bob Stephenson, Barb Nummeley, Mile Doyle, Dolores Shave, Pete Green and hostess Ruth Ann.

BHS, Lansing Debaters Split

By Barbara Gowan
In the last debate of the season, the Birmingham high school debate team shared a split decision with Lansing Eastern. The Lansing Eastern had won 34 of its last 37 debates. Of the three losses, two were to Birmingham. The winning negative team consisted of Dick Silbar and Joe Kroeger while on the losing affirmative team were Sue Spencer and Fred Shinnick. The season record is 11 wins and five losses, qualifying for the state meet in February. This record also gives Coach Charles Thumser another plaque to hang on the wall of his classroom. The team had its annual party last Saturday at a dinner at Dick Silbar's home where Coach Thumser was presented with a miniature loopy cup from the debaters.

City and Country Plans Yearbook

The Senior Class is publishing the 31st annual edition of The Eagle, our yearbook. Photographers are busy taking pictures of school activities. Peter Booth and Howard Sandler, our Sports cameramen are taking excellent pictures of the ice skating and sledding. Bob Simons and Bud Breitmeyer are busy with indoor scholastic activities. The yearbook editor gave the school a fascinating solo demonstration of roller skating on January 18th. Terry is the holder of medals and citations for his roller skating ability. Jay Harness of the seniors has been very ill for two weeks. However, Jay was cheered up by the recent announcement that his father, Don K. Harness of Birmingham was named "Detroit Man of the Year" by the Journal of Commerce.

The P.T.A. held a Rumor Clinic on Tuesday, January 18th. It was an edifying experience to watch the growth and development of a rumor. The first grade mothers were hostesses for the evening. Newly elected president of the Birmingham high school Student Congress for the rest of the year is senior Bob Goldsmith. Other winners of offices are David Allen, vice-president; Mahdie Harabedian, secretary and Bill Neuman, re-elected treasurer. Other candidates were Jim Johnson, president; Jim Gillen, vice president; Trudy McKewen, secretary; Pete Kass, treasurer. Campaign managers who talked in Friday's assembly were Bill Dove, Charlene Saffin, Don Fraser, Ed Leavenworth, Nancy Yarnall, Betty Quillian, Charles Frederickson, and Ann Gardner. Carol Negri was chairman of the election committee of the senate, which issued new rules for candidates. Students voted on voting machines lent by the city.

Village School Studies Weather

B.L.M. VILLAGE—Second grade. We have a weather chart in our classroom. We have the date and the temperature and the moisture and the left of day. We went to the dairy to see what happens to milk before we drink it. Robert Lang's father fixed the aquarium for us. He brought us three new fish. Second grade. Reported by Gary Zehnder. The second graders are making puppets out of socks. We are going to paint our store. Mrs. Sankey was locked out of her house. Third and fourth grade. Reported by Janie Cooper. The good citizens are Janie Cooper, and Jim Falconer. The president is Kitty Gillen, the vice president is Christine Bever. We got a letter from John Florey from Arizona.

Youth Program Set For Youth Room

The Birmingham Y.M.C.A. announces the re-opening of its Friday and Saturday night programs in the youth room of the Community House. The program on Friday night will include table tennis, card games and other table games. Saturday night's program will be a party and dance. Hours of operation will be from 8 p.m. to 12 midnight, both nights. All high school students are invited to attend.

Plan Skate Party

The Walnut Lake Jr. Big Club is planning a roller skating party at Keego Harbor Roller Rink, tomorrow. The Birmingham Y.M.C.A. has will pick up members and chaperones at the Walnut Lake school at 7 p.m. and return at 9 p.m. Small fee will be charged for bus fare in addition to the admission price.
