

Boasts Writing Poems at 88

By FRAN MAIER

Just to get "granpa" started on the right foot for the new year, his birthday is never forgotten by his family. Sunday, the Rev. Joseph Dutton of Ann Arbor, celebrated his 88th birthday anniversary at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Russell McBride, Inwood Circle, Bloomfield township.

He accompanied another son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hard, from Ann Arbor. Other dinner guests included his son, Paul Dutton and son, Paul, Jr., of Park Street, and Mrs. Adele Hanson. The only missing member of the family was a daughter, Mrs. B. F. Batchelor, of Sturgeon Bay, Wis.

Stopping by in the afternoon to extend best wishes with 11-month-old great-granddaughter, Elizabeth Ann McBride, wrote Mr. and Mrs. Jack H. McBride of Croft street. Rev. Dutton keeps himself busy with poem writing which is illustrated on his Christmas cards each year, and a discussion group in Ann Arbor which meets each Thursday. He has a new poem for each season. In the 1920s, Rev. Dutton was pastor of the First Methodist church in Birmingham for three years.

Vagabond Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Norman H. Strouse left Wednesday, January 5, for New York City to visit their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Newell, the former Patsy Holt, and to see their son, Stanley Holt, off on a Vagabond trip around the world.

Holt will embark for Naples Monday, January 10, on the steamer Cristoforo Colombo, of the Italian Line. He will first bicycle through the Mediterranean countries stopping whenever and wherever and for as long as the spirit moves him.

In the spring he will visit France, Switzerland and Holland and then on to the Scandinavian countries and the Land of the Midnight Sun in the summer.

The Strouses will hold a family party with dinner and night clubbing in New York City Saturday, January 8, as a final celebration before Stanley leaves.

addition is Paul Joseph, seventh child of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peabody, 3850 1/2 Quarton, born Dec. 31 at Grace hospital, Detroit.

Closest cousin in age is Barbara Jane, daughter of the James Peabodys born Nov. 26. All the grandchildren have been born within the last 12 years to the six brothers and sisters, four of whom live in the area.

Double Christening for Cousins

Double Christening services were held at Christ Church Cranbrook Saturday for tiny Martha Winthrop Crim and Peter Thompson Beresford with the Rev. Perry Williams officiating. Martha is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Winthrop Crim and Peter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson Beresford, all of Gilbert Lake.

Godparents of six-week-old Martha Winthrop were Miss Elizabeth Ward of Pontiac and Mr. and Mrs. William Beresford.

Godparents of five-week-old Peter Thompson were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Little, of Columbus, Ohio and Mr. and Mrs. John Crim. Peter wore a christening gown which had been worn by his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Elmer L. Sylvester.

After the Christening services luncheon was served for thirty relatives at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin M. Beresford, grandparents of both Martha and Peter.

Among the luncheon guests were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer L. Sylvester, grandparents of Peter, and Mr. William D. Crim of Ann Arbor, grandfather of Martha. Also attending from Ann Arbor was Miss Peggy Joe Crim.

Three great-grandparents also attended the christening and luncheon. They were Mr. and Mrs. William E. Beresford, of Bloomfield Hills, great-grandparents of both babies and Mrs. Amelia B. Crim, 94, of Ann Arbor, great-grandmother of Martha Winthrop Crim.

Teen Age Party

Helping John Scott Watson celebrate his 14th birthday at Forest Lake Country club last week were Sue Beears, Linda Burkman, Sue Clark, Marilyn Chaffee, and Beth Collins.

In the group were Ruth Ann Helmich, Mary Lecher, Gus Leader, Mickey Handren, John Nixon, Jeff Boster, Phil Isbell, Marvin Natzke, Dick Duncan, Ronnie Morrow and Penny Ball.

John, who entertained his guests at dinner and an evening of dancing, returned to his studies at Culver on Tuesday.

Sisters Host Open House

Mrs. Johanna Van Breenam of near Jacksonville, Fla., who came to Michigan for the holidays, has been spending her time between her sons-in-law and daughters, the Rocco DiMarcos of Dunstan, Bloomfield Hills, and the Charles Hatters of Berg road.

She arrived just in time to get in on the open house celebration hosted by the DiMarcos' daughters, Donna came home from a year and a half abroad, where she was attending the University of Florence in Italy, and Toni was home from the University of Michigan.

Party Honors Engaged Couple

Talk of wedding plans competed with details of Florida military life when Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woodruff entertained at their Puritan avenue home last week.

The gathering was for Clarissa Adams and Tom Goad, home from college and planning a February wedding. The Woodruffs' daughter and son-in-law, Lt. and Mrs. William Saunders arrived from his Marine station in Florida.

Several days later, Lt. Saunders departed again for a 60-day period aboard ship, part of his training. Mrs. Saunders remains here until joining him in Miami, Fla., when he returns.

Wisconsin Guest Attends Club Dinner

Attending the holiday dinner of the Soroptimist Club held at Devon Gables last Thursday evening was Mrs. Frank Greer of Madison, Wis. Mrs. Greer, who is president of the Altrusa club of her home city, was guest of Miss Frieda Calhoun, head of the local Altrusa International organization.

Other Altrusans present were Mrs. Raymond Peck, Mrs. Millard W. Newcomb, Mrs. Cyril Lewis, Miss Gladys Etzold, Miss Helen Holmes, Mrs. Louise Pratt and Miss Marjorie Brusie.

Prior to the dinner, Mrs. Newcomb, Pleasant Ridge, Alton, honored Mrs. Greer and Altrusan members with a social hour in her office at the Fox and Hounds. In the afternoon Miss Brusie entertained Altrusans at tea in her home on Rivenock drive.

Good Health Good Cheer

In the Coming Year

That you and your family will enjoy good health—and the good cheer that go with it—is our sincere wish for the coming year. But wishing won't make it so. To enjoy good health—practice daily the few, common-sense rules that promote, and protect, good health. Eat wisely. Get sufficient rest. Take time out for play, including regular, moderate exercise. Seek the advice of your physician when you become ill. And should you require prescribed medicine—remember that all our laboratory resources... all our training and experience... have but one purpose—to help you keep your good health.
