Language Arts Textbooks Topic of Franklin PTA

Paul Carter, assistant superintendent of the Birmingham school system will be guest speaker when the Franklin PTA meets at the school at eight o'clock next Monday night. He will discuss the language arts text books used in the Birmingham schools and will tell why they were adopted.

Parents of children in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades are invited to visit their children's rooms and meet their teachers after the talk. Refreshments will be served after the program.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Smith were hosts at dinner on New Year's day to Dr. and Mrs. Clifford Eklund, of Pontiac, and Mr. and Mrs. Newton Skillman and children, Chris Amy and Tony, from Lake Angelus.

The Ralph Woodhams were hosts at a New Year's eve party at their home on Telegraph road, 4131 Mr. and Mrs. Milton Gadow, of Detroit, and the Wis Humans, of Franklin, as their guests.

SKI CLUB VISITS

The John Ramoza and their children Susan and Ralph spent the New Year's weekend at the Oregon; Ski club near Gaylor, and attended the ball there on New Year's night.

Also at the ski club were the Samuel Gavner and their son Brad, Mr. and Mrs. Volpomme and their son, and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Smith, Mark Smith, and Mrs. James Morrison Taylor and the Taylor children, James and Walter.

The Ramoza were hosts at a

Mrs. Robert Kelley, Mrs. William Field, Maurice Knoll, Mrs. Burton McKinley, Mrs. Clyde Worley and Mrs. Phil Van Dyke. Others were Mrs. G. Wellington Smith, Mrs. Nils Anderson, Mrs. Hugh McFee, Mrs. Dennis Lenane, Mrs. Antonio Montfort, Mrs. George Leher, Mrs. Richard Garlock, Mrs. Ken Wagener, Mrs. Ralph Woodburn, Mrs. Harry Metz, Mrs. Arthur Foltz and Mrs. Lynn Beraher.

Mrs. Rittner, who is owner of the Village Nursery school, was hostess at a buffet dinner for the staff on Saturday.

The Jack Wierolds left on Christmas day to fly to Ponton, S. Carolina to spend the holiday week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Waudhery. They returned just in time for the Buel Stars' New Year's eve party.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Tarack held family open house last week Sunday, with relatives from Detroit, Ferndale and Birmingham visiting them at their home on Yng Lake road.

Bill Kanoold, son of the Paul Kanoolds of Carol road, was home from Chicago for the Christmas holidays.

Ten-year-old Danny Dozier, not to be outdone by the adults, was host to nine young friends at a dinner party at the Dozier's place on Willow-green road last Thursday evening.

STORAGE BARN FIRE
Franklin fire department volunteers were called out at 11:45 a.m. on Dec. 30 to a fire in a storage barn on Bingham road. Four drums of burning fuel oil in the building made the conflagration visible throughout the Franklin area.

APRONS TO WINNERS
Franklin Women Bowlers, who bowled highest over average last year, were surprised by Mrs. Norman Currin, president of the league, with Christmas red and green rayon aprons, presented to the five who bowled highest over average last year: Jerry Carroll, 48 over; Mrs. Ben Day, each covering a 3-7-10 split into a spare.
