Wintertime Gifts Enjoyed On Northern Weekend Visit

Christmas skates and skis were put to use over the weekend by the children of Mr. and Mrs. Donald H. Johnson of Guilford road and Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Krego of Glenwood. The two families spent the New Year's weekend at Point Lookout on Saginaw Bay.

They were guests of the G. W. Robinsons of Ferndale. Each New Year's the Kregos and Johnsons return to their summer haunt so that the children may visit their maternal grandparents.

Don Wilkinson came from New York to spend the Christmas weekend at his parents' home on Route 60 but had to return to the east before their annual New Year's eve party.

Outdoor decorations which were selected as the best in the Woodward subdivision this year by the board of directors of the subdivision's improvement association were on the homes of Mrs. Newell Whitney of Guilford road, the Maurice Greenfields of Glenwood road and the Philip Lenihans of Bantlet road.

The A. N. Heiters of Guilford road invited over 20 friends to each of two musicales they gave during the holiday. The first party was Thursday, Dec. 22, and the second on Monday, Dec. 27.

Mrs. Heiters took this opportunity to tell about their first grandson, Mark Steven Heiters, who was born Dec. 17 at Fort Sill, Okla. His paternal grandfather hopes to see him in school or two when he plans a business trip in that vicinity.

The baby's parents are Sergeant and Mrs. W. Roy Heiters. Over the past weekend H. J. Wemmerstrom of Hope, N. D. was a houseguest in the Heiters home.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Robinson gave a family dinner in their home on Bembridge road Sunday to honor Dr. and Mrs. Webb Wilson. Mrs. Wilson was Joan Robinson before her marriage.

Dr. Wilson leaves the end of this week for Germany where he will serve as a flight surgeon with the army air corps. As soon as arrangements can be made for suitable housing, Mrs. Wilson plans to join him abroad.

Gathering around the Robinsons' decorated scotch pine Christmas tree were Dr. and Mrs. Harley J. Robinson of Bloomfield Hills, Dr. and Mrs. Wilfred Wilson of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Clem Robinson of Bloomfield Hills, and the guests of honor.

Last Wednesday evening, Mrs. Robinson entertained the members of her bowling team, which is sponsored by Johnson Plumbing and Heating, and the officers of Wednesday afternoon league of the Birmingham Bowling Alleys.

WINS TROPHY
Paul Grant of Winton Lane was the final judge in the home Royal Oak-Beverly Hills subdivision. Ben Ross, Gardner Stannion and William Brown served on the judging committee, appointed by the subdivision's association president, Arthur LaPace.

A silver loving cup was awarded to the Harry Mitchells of Arlington. Their name will be engraved upon the cup and they will have it until it is presented to the winner of the contest planned for next year.

This is the first time a cup has

MR. AND MRS. JOHN J. KRISTOLA

Mr. and Mrs. Kristola Make Home in Milford

Florida was the honeymoon destination of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Kristola following their December marriage in Salem National Lutheran church, Wayne. The Rev. Arne Kristo of Toronto, cousin of the groom, officiated at the double ring rites. The newlyweds are now making their home in Milford.

The bride, the former Lily Evelyn Wittala, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kristola of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hartikka of Michigan road, Wayne. Her husband's parents are a ballerina length gown of nylon tulle and chance and chantly lace, draped over satin, was worn by the bride. She carried white chrysanthemums centered with a white orchid.

HONOR attendant was Ruth Halmi, aunt of the bride, in a ballerina length gown of aqua crystalline. She carried yellow baby mums.

Bridesmaids were Norma Gastino of Bessemer, Jean Kuitto of Royal Oak and Arlene Kristola of Birmingham. They wore identical gowns of coral crystalline and carried yellow baby mums.

Ernest Mattson was best man. Assisting as groomsmen were Archie McDonald, Fritz Miskovitch and Donald Kristola, brother of the groom.

Mrs. Wittala chose an eggshell embroidered brocade ensemble with black accessories. Mrs. Kristola wore white accessories with her floor blue rayon acetate dress. Both mothers had orchids.

Birthdays anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all new—call the society editor about them.

Four Aid at Cancer Center

Four Birmingham women will be joining other Alpha Delta Pi alumnae on January 31 to serve the Detroit Cancer center.

The volunteers include Mrs. Wilbur Saylor, 1535 Island Lake, Bloomfield township; Mrs. Robert Brown, 1329 Yorkshire, Mrs. Clarence Nichols, 1447 Buckingham, and Mrs. J. B. Sewell, 1829 Birmingham boulevard.

The alumnae group is one of 65 college and society alumnae units affiliated with College Women's voluntary service. The service is covered Mondays, the year around at the center, and served other charitable organizations.
