THE STYLES FOR SCOUTS are previewed for Mrs. Richard Purdy, chairman for the Holy Name school's all-troop fashion show on January 10. Two of the Girl Scouts and Brownies who will model modes in an effort to increase interest in leading troops of scouts are Nancy Morris, at left, and Fleurette Lourim. Nancy belongs to Brownie Troop 376 and Fleurette to Girl Scout troop 428.

They will display styles at a showing during the Parent-Teacher association meeting at the school at 7 p.m.

Opening the program will be classroom conferences with teachers, with a business meeting at 8:30 p.m. and the fashion show following. All seven of Holy Name's scout troops will take part, with 26 girls and two leaders showing styles and others singing. Scouts and mothers will serve refreshments.

Mrs. Purdy will give commentary for the review. (Eccentric Photo)

MRS. JAMES NOBLE MacMILLAN

MacMillan-Loud Vows Spoken at Cranbrook

The double-ring ceremony at Christ Church Cranbrook united in marriage Susan Elaine Loud and James Noble MacMillan last Thursday at 8:30 p.m. She wore a gown of imported lace patterned in tiny nosegays and worn over satin. Two narrow bands of fluted tulle encircled the bouffant skirt and lace scallops edged the open neckline. Her silk illusion veil was attached to a small lace cap. She carried roses, white orchids and stephanotis.

Susan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy K. Loud of Lone Pine court. Her husband's parents are Col. and Mrs. Alexander Romeyn MacMillan of Carbondale, Ill.

MRS. Richard Kern and her little daughter, Kerry, were matron of honor and flower girl. Kerry's short white organdy dress had a red collar and sash edged in rick rack. She carried white carnations and red berries. Mrs. Kern wore a princess gown with full skirt of white satin-dotted faille, with a green velvet sash. Three green velvet bands held her face veil and she carried red carnations mixed with greenery.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Holt Ackerman, sister of the bride, Elizabeth Beckwith of Buenos Aires, Mimi Cummiskey, Mary Monaghan and Nan Adams. Their identical gowns were distinguished by red bead bands, sashes, slippers and carnations.

William McGregor MacMillan came from Topeka, Kan., to be his brother's best man. Guests were seated by John Hibbard, Jr., of Grand Rapids, Holt Ackerman, Richard C. Kern, Bruce Coleman, Douglas Eckford, Calvin Patterson, John M. Dodds and Francis MacMillan.

FOR HER daughter's wedding, Mrs. Loud chose a gown of bois de rose peau de soie appliqued with silver threaded lace and a matching hat. Mrs. MacMillan selected mauve peau de soie with a matching hat.

When the couple left for Greenville, Miss., where Mr. MacMillan is an Air Force cadet, the bride was wearing a charcoal brown suit with red accessories, a burgundy coat and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Peters and Mr. and Mrs. Atwood B. Oatman, all of Summit, N. J.

We Heard It Said By:

ALBERT H. WARNER
B'ham manager for Michigan Bell Telephone Co.: "Since the city has changed its parking meter rates and excluded the use of pennies, we have had to increase considerably the number of nickels we keep on hand here for shoppers who park in front of our building."
