Club Women Renew Season's Activities at Start of Year

Walnut Lake branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association will hold a meeting Monday, Jan. 10, at the home of Mrs. John A. Bell, of Putnam drive. During the business meeting, election of officers will be held. Members of the nominating committee are Mrs. Edward Griggs, Mrs. Walter Mathews and Mrs. Robert Smith.

For the program following, Mrs. R. C. Banker will give a book review. Assisting Mrs. Bell as tea hostess will be Mrs. Cass Brovarey. Guests are welcome.

On Tuesday, Jan. 11, at 8:00 p.m. the Walnut Lake Woman's club will hold its first meeting of the year at the township hall on Orchard Lake road.

The program will be "Nine Presents," a monologue given by Mrs. Mason Noble. Guests are invited.

Monday, Dec. 27, the Douglas Harpurs, of East Dartmouth road, entertained the Donald E. Muttons and the Joseph Majors at holiday get-together.

Soaking up Florida sunshine, the Harold and Marys, of Blount field Glens drive, celebrated Christmas without sleet and snow this year. The family returned home in time for the opening of school.

Open house was held at the home of the late Mrs. M. J. Smith, North Clunbury road, on New Year's eve for a group of friends and neighbors.

ATTEND FORMAL DANCE

Wednesday, Dec. 29, Barbara Staudinger, of Putnam drive, and Barbara Binnell, of West Dartmouth road, attended a formal dinner-dance given by their parents, Delta Gamma Chi, at a Detroit hotel. They were escorted by Dale Hoy and Monte Gerald.

The same afternoon Barbara Binnell attended a tea given by her former classmates, Carolyn Burroughs, for old school friends at the Burroughs' new home on Hamilton road, Birmingham.

Carolyn is at home on vacation from Northwestern university. About 20 girls enjoyed reminiscing over high school days and getting up to date on each other's college activities.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Rehard, of East Dartmouth road, entertained Christmas day dinner for friends who stayed on at their houseguests for the weekend.

New Year's eve, this ambitious hostess had a cocktail party and buffet in the late afternoon and early evening for one group, and then welcomed another group in for a midnight celebration.

This event is a double redletter day in their calendar, as Rehard's birthday falls on the first day of the year. Upon arising Jan. 1, the family left for a houseparty in Groesse Pointe with old friends to further honor the birthday.

On Thursday, Dec. 30, the Kipp boys, sons of the Donald Kippis, of Valley Spring Court, entertained a group of their Barnum school classmates at a winter sports party.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schuler, of Kenmore road, entertained friends for cocktails on New Year's eve at their home before going on to Schuler's club, the Ispans, in Royal Oak, for their partying.

Enjoying the evening with them were the Cotton Russells, the Cass Brovareys and the Eugene Carricos.

Robert Maud, son of the E. S. Mauds of Darranum road, arrived home Dec. 12 from the Coast Guard Academy in New London, Conn., for Christmas leave.

The family attended numerous open houses, where he had a chance to greet his friends and relatives. Robert's love ended on Jan. 1.

The Wendell Moores, of South Clunbury road, spent Christmas in Marshall, at a family gathering, and again took off at noon last Friday for a weekend of skiing at Gaylord. Joining them on their Gaylord trip were Mr. and Mrs. Makolm Petty, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Diebold and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kenny.

Also a warm welcome to Miss Elizabeth Graves and Mrs. Nora Egan who have just moved into a ranch home on North Clunbury road.

Formerly connected with the East and Graves Insurance agency, in the Briggs building, Birmingham, they moved to Florida after selling the business.

However, they missed the Birmingham area and friends, and returned to build here, planning on visits to their Florida home during the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Bull, of West Dartmouth road, held an open house on Sunday, Dec. 26, to greet their friends and give them an opportunity to inspect their new home. Around 70 guests attended the housewarming.

Residents Greet New Year With Various Celebrations

Each year, there are almost as many ways to celebrate the New Year as there are people to celebrate it. West Beverly folk demonstrated a wide range of ideas, from the hornblowing and confetti-throwing at the club, to a quiet evening at home watching TV.

New Year's eve found a large West Beverly turnout at the Birmingham Country club. Among the merry-makers were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Prucha, the Verne Proctors, Harold Van Horns, Bradley Stephenson and George Dettlingers.

The Norris Hosts, of Bedford road, saw the New Year in at the Bloomfield Hills home of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Bullock.

Typical of the many area residents, who were transported to Watch Night services and Times Square by the magic of television were the Lee H. Parkers, of Beverly road. Like many another citizen, the Parkers had their original New Year's plans altered this year by a virus infection.

Last Thursday, the Parkers home was the scene of a luncheon given by their nine-year-old grand-daughter, Cheryl Durward, for 12 friends and their new Christmas dolls. After luncheon, the girls and their "honors guests" proceeded to Cheryl's Beverly road home, for games.

TRANS-PACIFIC CALL
A long distance phone call at 4:25 a.m. got the W. M. Scarth household, on Sunbush drive, off to an early start Christmas morning. The call was one placed the night before to her son, Major Bob Cunningham, in Korea.

Mr. and Mrs. Scarth phoned an army friend of Maj. Cunningham's, in Three Rivers, to get the proper numbers for the call, which was radiated from Oakland, Calif., via Japan, to Korea.

The trans-Pacific conversation highlighted the day for Mrs. Scarth's father, Col. A. I. Kuhlman, USA ret., who celebrated his 71st birthday on Christmas day.

Last-minute Christmas shopping was definitely in order this year, for the Joseph Murphys, of Beverly road. Reason for the delay was Cecilia Elizabeth Murphy, who was born Nov. 27 at Providence hospital in Detroit. She has an older sister, Ann Marie, 15 months old.

The Herman Friedmans, entertained about 100 guests last Sunday for cocktails and buffet in their Warwick road home. Honor guests for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Lurie, Mr. and Mrs. John Lurie, and Mrs. Forrest Webster, television's "Lads of Charm."

The Alfred Gades, of Warwick road, had an active week at 4 p.m. Christmas time. Included in the holiday excitement was Christmas dinner for the Mary Lou, for a group of Birmingham friends.

SEWING GROUP MEETS
The Betty Gaudin, of Hillcrest road, will be the hostess when the Sewing Group meets on Monday, Jan. 10, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Gaudin.

members of the West Beverly sewing group gather next Tuesday, Jan. 11, for their first meeting of the new year. Each member will bring a sandwich and any necessary sewing equipment to the meeting, which is scheduled for 8 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Keeffe and their son, Frank, Jr., moved from Detroit to their new home at 1834 Riverside drive, at Thanksgiving time. The Keeffes, senior and junior, are both associated with the Proctor-Keeffe Body company, in Detroit. The senior Keeffe has another son, Roy, of Detroit, and a daughter, Mrs. Robert Hartman, who gathered the family together during the holidays for Christmas dinner at her Orchard Lake home.

New residents at 1850 Dunham road, are Mr. and Mrs. George J. Rundblad, who moved here Nov. 15 from the Royal Oak section of Beverly Hills. Previous residents of Wheaton, Ill., and Detroit, the Rundblads have four children, Christy, eight, Jerelen, six, Carol, five and George III, three. Rundblad is affiliated with the Pecknack Mather Co., in Detroit.

What's the NEW news in the '55 cars?

Is it V-8 Power?
Ford has had it since 1932

Ford was first to offer a V-8 engine in a low-priced car. And since the original Ford V-8 in 1932, more than 11,000,000 Ford V-8's have been built. This 200-hp V-8 is better than all other manufacturers'.

Is it Ball-Joint Suspension?
Ford had it in 1954

Ford introduced Ball-Joint Front Suspension to the low-price field in 1954. The superior type of suspension that adds extra life to your car.

Is it suspended pedals?
Ford introduced them in 1952

Introduced in the 1952 model, Ford was first in the low-price field with suspended pedals. This advanced type of pedals eliminates driver's foot and leg fatigue. Extra room for the driver's feet and ankles in the Roomy Ford Suspension pedals extends your drive.

Is it hood-high fenders?
Ford introduced them in 1952

The 1952 Ford brought a new look to the American car. This sleek, low look of the car was the result of innovation and design.

The NEWS is Thunderbird Styling
It's not the look you saw in any of last year's cars. It's the new look inspired by the Thunderbird. And it sets the styling for Ford's '55 lines.

The NEWS is Trigger-Torque Power
It's trigger-quick "GO" which can obey your commands in 7/100 of a second—four times faster than you can wink.

The NEWS is Angle-Poised Ride
An advanced form of Ball-Joint Suspension which swallows the big bumps... makes even smooth roads ride smoother.
