

Marriage Vows Said On New Year's Day

A New Year's Day ceremony united in marriage Patricia Lou Merrell and William J. Jackson. Double-ring rites were said at 2 p. m. in the chapel of the First Baptist church with the Rev. Woodrow W. Clark officiating. A background of music played by the groom's sister, Mrs. Edward Gatewood, included "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me".

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew D. Merrell of Fourteen Mile road, wore a white knit dress with matching accessories and carried white mums. Mrs. Thomas A. Dell of Cleveland, who wore an aqua blue knit dress with matching accessories and carried yellow mums.

MATRON of honor and only attendant was the bride's sister, Mrs. Thomas A. Dell of Cleveland, who wore an aqua blue knit dress with matching accessories and carried yellow mums. Thomas A. Dell was best man and seating the guests were Joseph Davis and Joseph McClard.

Hostess Geneva Friends Here

Friends they met in Geneva, Switzerland, last spring were entertained by Mrs. and Mrs. Herbert Chamberlain, who was doing photographic research on altitude's effect on film, and met the Carr at their West Maple home in Bloomfield township last Sunday. Gilbert Gathrois and his sister, Mrs. Paul Robson and Mr. Robson had dinner at the Carr home and watched films shown by another guest, Mrs. Samuel Dean, of Fern Dale.

Mrs. Dean, whose late husband was an engineer at Princeton, household goods of every description are offered for sale in white, where possible, in the Classified Columns of the Birmingham Eccentric. The trip last summer with Dr. Gathrois is currently doing research on altitude's effect on film, and met the Carr at their West Maple home in Bloomfield township last Sunday.
