Show Art
At UofM

Among artists from 21 Michigan cities showing original works in the University of Michigan's amateur art exhibit July 14 through July 30, will be a group from this area, including several members of the Birmingham Women's Painters.

The works, in watercolors, oils, prints and drawings, will be on display in the galleries of the Rackham building.

BIRMINGHAM artists displaying are Mrs. Paul N. Averill of Glenayric circle, Mrs. Randolph Heizer, of Harmon, Mrs. John H. Hoppin, Jr., of Dorchester, Mrs. Ralph Skinner of N. Adams, Mrs. F. Chalmers Smith, of Oak and Mrs. V. J. Snyder of Woodland.

From Bloomfield Hills, Mrs. Ralph D. Williams of Haverhill, and from Detroit, Mrs. Rebecca E. Viger, and from Pontiac, Mrs. Clarence Patterson, are members of the Birmingham Women Painters who are exhibiting.

From Franklin, Arthur Hays is showing a painting.

Museum hours are Monday through Saturday, 9 a.m. to 10 p.m., at the Rackham building in Ann Arbor.

Have You Met

The A. A. Togsens, newly moved to 18357 Riverside drive from Huntington Woods, Togsens is vice president in charge of marketing for Bull Dog Electric Products Co., of Detroit. The family memberships include Rebecs club, Detroit Sales Executives, Rackham, Electrical Association of Detroit, National Electric Manufacturers Association and the American Management association. Togsens enjoys "puttering around the house mechanically," woodworking, photography and fish.

The bride's fingertip veil of French illusion and net was worn with an antique heirloom hat of Alencon lace and designed from a real lace fan.

MRS. HAWKINS wore a plum silk with mauve accessories and a corsage of aristocrat roses. The bridegroom's mother wore navy blue lace with white accessories and white carnations and roses.

To start her honeymoon trip to Northern Michigan and Canada, the new Mrs. Kerr donned a navy linen suit with white accessories.

After Aug. 1, the newlyweds will make their home in Fairfax, Va.

Canada's Shore

Spending summer months on Stag Island at Coruna, Ontario, Mrs. Leland B. Church, of Sheridan drive, writes, "We just watched the "South American" passenger boat go by. It sounded like everyone on board was enjoying the cruise. The music is so lovely coming across the water."

The G. Robert Kerrs
To Reside in Fairfax

Nancy J. Lippert became the bride of G. Robert Kerr at an afternoon ceremony Saturday in the First Presbyterian church. Given in marriage by her uncle, Robert Hawkins, the Rev. Robert Graham read the double-ring rites before 300 wedding guests.

The bride is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Hawkins of Millford, formerly of Birmingham. Her father is George H. Lippert of Pontiac. Bob's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George R. Kerr of Atlanta, Ga.

Nancy's white chantilly lace and nylon net gown had a Queen Anne collar encrusted with seed pearls. The fitted bodice was fashioned with long sleeves and the full skirt of appliqued lace was over nylon net with its cathedral train over blush satin. She carried a cascade of white French carnations and white orchids.

DOROTHY Churchill was her cousin's maid of honor. She wore a ballerina length dress of powder blue lace over taffeta and her heart-shaped hat was of blue marline and tiny violets. She carried a crest bouquet of pink daisy and pink pompons.

Bridesmaids were Georgia Smith of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Thomas Callahan of Clarkston. They wore rose taffeta dresses identical to the maid of honor's and carried crest bouquets of blue daisy pompons and ivy.

Eugene Bennels of Ft. Wayne, Ind., was best man. Seating the guests were David Evans of Sylvan Lake, Robert Lippert of Pontiac and Thomas Callahan of Clarkston. Junior usher was James C. Haw-
