Block Party on Arlington Held at Clinton Newmans

The Arlingtoners in the first block west of Greenfield have gone and done it again. Saturday evening the whole block, except for three couples who had previous plans, gathered at the Clinton V. Newmans' home at 32271 Arlington for a block party.

The driveway and the front lawn were decorated with gay lanterns and very soon with guests in colorful summer attire. According to Bob McCartney everyone seemed to have a good time and even after the midnight hamburger roast they still lingered on for—well, longer than most of the mothers and fathers had stayed at a party for many a day.

The very important decision made during the course of the evening was that the block parties should be frequent from now on. There were farewells to Mr. and Mrs. William Ormiston, who will be leaving soon for Pittsburgh, and welcomes to Mr. and Mrs. James Gullberg, who will move into the Ormiston's house.

A birthday cake was carried in to the midst of the merry-makers and happy birthday was sung to Chuck Brindle.

Those at the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Judson Phelps, Mr. Ray Hall, Mr. and Mrs. William Ormiston, Mr. and Mrs. James Gullberg, Mr. and Mrs. William Simpson, Dr. and Mrs. Maynard Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Riley, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Beach, Mrs. Hazel Block, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Tuttle, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Downing and Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCartney.

Others were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Art Nechman, Mr. and Mrs. Al Jolierman, Mr. and Mrs. Herm Pravel, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Destefano.

RETURN FROM LAKE

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Pasutin of Arlington returned from White Lake late Saturday.

Mrs. Pasutin and her daughters, Ronnie and Karen, were house guests last week of Mrs. Constantine Leslie. Pasutin arrived at the cottage Saturday evening for a chicken barbecue before bringing his family home.

Mr. and Mrs. Howdy Brewer were host and hostess to a few friends and relatives at a steak roast on their lawn on Auburn drive Saturday evening.

Among their guests were Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Brummett, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Stapleton, Mr. and Mrs. Clare Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Moss, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Osterling, Floyd Taggart and Mr. and Mrs. Dolph Neemer.

Howdy's mother, Mrs. W. J. Brewer who was also present, returned to her home in Flint on Monday.

Franklinites Still Hope to Resist Pesky Ole 'Pike

FRANKLIN — That residents here have not yet given up hope of turning back the flood of Saginaw turpicks is evident by a small item included in the statement of receipts and disbursements for the past year as prepared by Village Treasurer, Norman G. Curran.

The item, $82.02 included in "cash on hand," is earmarked as deposit for anti-turpick expenses.

"We have used some of the donation in 1955 by a private citizen to cover cost of telegrams and so forth," said Curran.

In reply to a remark that $82.02 was not very much to battle the turpicks, village officers said others were standing by to see "what was needed."
