Informality, Fun, Keynote Of Annual Dinner Dance

Informality and fun keynoted the Berkshires association dinner dance Saturday night at the Birmingham golf club, when the women wore their coolest cottons, the men removed their coats for comfort and three brave souls, Bob Wink, Bob Henderson and Charles Dalgleit, appeared in Bermuda shorts and argyle socks.

Before the dinner dance there were several cocktail parties. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wink of Old Mill road entertained Mr. and Mrs. Bob Reason, Mrs. and Mrs. Bob Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Evans and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dalgleit.

The Howard T. Keatings, Jr., of Lenoira road served cocktails and snacks to Mr. and Mrs. Tim Cruise, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Elston, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Buggs, the Arthur Newmans, Mr. and Mrs. Joan S. MacGibbon and Mrs. Howard T. Keating.

Over on Hampton road, neighbors gathered at the Jack Cat on the back porch and terrace. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. H. Dawson, Mr. and Mrs. Lenard Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Ann Sherwood, the Bots and Barlow, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Moona, Mr. and Mrs. Virginia Dretzel and escort, Dr. and Mrs. Russ Seeburger and Len Nichols, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Louise Desmond of Sherwood road also entertained at cocktails before the dinner dance. At the club, seated at the Lee Keatings table were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Malpell, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Noye and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Gilme. Across the dance floor at a table were Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Foley, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burke, Mr. and Mrs. William Cheer, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hallahan and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fraser.

At the next table were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kurtz, Mr. and Mrs. John Loiniskar, Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Flick and Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Henkel.

At another table were Mr. and Mrs. Hurl Gatward, the Fred Nicholsons, the Donald Nells and Mr. and Mrs. William King all of Bell Vine Trail.

Also attending the dance were Mr. and Mrs. Herman W. Smith and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Livingston and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rice. Others were Mr. and Mrs. Louise Desmond, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew MacDonald, Mr. and Mrs. James Barbour and Mrs. Harold Rapp. Seen on the dance floor doing a fast rumba were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Reason.

Much of the success of the dinner dance was due to the tireless efforts of Mrs. Jack Catmichael and her committee, Mrs. Carmichael surprised everyone by having procured stic cologne as table prizes for the women, and a great variety of door prizes.

JULY 4th BIRTHDAY

Sue Stanley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Stanley of Old Mill road, a real live working and talking "fire cracker" was born on the fourth of July. This year she celebrated her ninth birthday with a party on July 2, with plenty of ice cream and birthday cake. Guests were Susan Greer, Sally

Girl Scouts Take Trip to Washington

LATHRUP—Members of Southfield high school Girl Scout troop 157 returned recently from a four-day trip to Washington, D. C., during which they made their headquarters at Camp Rockwood near Bethesda, Md.

Travelling by train, the troop was supervised on the trip by leaders Mrs. Erwin Mikelson, Mrs.

Tuckfield. The girls were Judy Anderson, Joan Anderson, Katherine Zabriski, Ruth Feyer, Ruth Apple Mueller, Catherine Scheer, Alice Corrivau, Margaret Niemi, Wendy Huihwagen, Adelia Hunter, Patricia Smith and Carol Paulus.

While camped pioneer-style in four Adirondack-type shelters, the Girl Scouts cooked all their meals out of doors, took a night-seeing bus around the capital and into West Virginia, and had the thrill of seeing Burma's prime minister, U. Nu, on a tour of the Archives building.

The trip was made possible through donations and Girl Scout earnings.

Joan Welch on European Tour with Wayne Students

Joan Welch, daughter of the H. P. Welshes of Goldengate Drive arrived in England last Monday, along with 25 Wayne university students on a tour of Europe.

Mrs. Welch, who is from Miami Beach, Fla., but spends her summers here, says this year she had her doubts about Michigan being cooler than Florida. The Stanleys served cocktails before serving a buffet dinner to Mrs. Welch's son-in-law and daughter, Mrs. and Donald Peasley, Mr. and Mrs. John Tater, Stanley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mull and his wife, Jack Mull; Donald Gougton and his son, Mario; Mrs. Mabel Anderhalt and Stanley's daughter, Sherry.

Newcomers to the Berkshires as of last Spring are Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gilme and their three-month-old daughter, Laurie Jo. The Gilmes, formerly from Detroit, built their own home at 1255 Forest Lane.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Gilme are graduates of Wayne University. Mrs. Gilme likes to paint and play the piano. Gilme is president of Michigan Waterproofing co. in Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman L. Martens of Jackson Park Lane entertained July 3 at a picnic. The picnic was scheduled to take place outdoors but after the Martens showed guests their newly decorated recreation room everyone voted to move down there where it was nice and cool.

Guests include Mrs. Madeline Meador, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dawson and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Folsom. Gordie Nyquist, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Gordon Nyquist, of Old Mill road, was christened Gordon Clarke Nyquist July 10 at Kirk-In-The-Hills Presbyterian church. Mr. and Mrs. Nyquist's godmother was Mrs. Richard A. Clarke and his godfather, Harold Anderson.

After the christening, the Nyquists served a buffet brunch. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Nyquist, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Clarke and their children, Jan and Dickie.

For the past week Mr. and Mrs. Len Nichols of Lahser road have been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scott of Mesa, Ariz., who stopped off on their way to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. James Barbour of Sherwood road broke in their new outdoor barbecue by having a breakfast July 10. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Louis Desmond and their son Bob; Mr. and Mrs. Matthew MacDonald and their children, Jim and Mary Lou.
