Cesar Pellis, Son, Return From Five Weeks in Mexico

Mr. and Mrs. Cesar Pelli with their son, two-year-old Dennis, recently returned to their Graefield court home after a five-week vacation in Mexico, where they were house-guests of Mrs. Pelli's aunt, Mrs. Angeles Tomas of Mexico City.

Natives of Argentina, the Pellis were impressed with the architecture and picturesque scenery of old Mexico. Dining in exotic restaurants, with side trips to interesting cities, they ended their holiday with a four-day stay at Cuernavaca.

While there Dennis celebrated his second birthday with a Mexican birthday party. Highlight of the party was the piñata traditionally used by Mexicans at Christmas time. A receptacle, the piñata when touched at the top with a stick, opens, and all kinds of toys and surprises bounce out.

The John J. Shaffners have returned from Okonema, where they vacationed for ten days at Portage Point Inn, with side trips to Petoskey, Harbor Springs, and Cadillac.

The Shaffners, while there, entertained 16 guests for cocktails and a cook-out on the beach. Mrs. Shaffner was fascinated by the sand beaches which she said made the beach seem like the Sahara desert.

After an extended weekend in New York City the Joseph Reines have returned to their home. While in the east a busy schedule kept them constantly on the go. House-guest of the Walter Burghards of Frohman Park, the Reines were feted at a cocktail party in their honor at the Morristown home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard McMichael, then on to summit where Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hunter entertained them at a steak fry. Then came a short visit with Mrs. Reine's grand-plan to go yachting again this weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard S. Parker, with their son Bruce, 4, entertained Dr. and Mrs. William Chafurka and their children, Paul, Tannis and Cara of London, Ont., last weekend. The gentlemen entertained the children Saturday with a trip to the Detroit Zoo. A picnic at the lake Sunday completed their weekend.

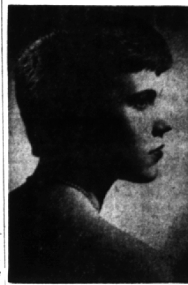

rea. The room was as usual. Name church.

Welcome also to Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Zielinski and their daughter, two-year-old Mary Kathleen, natives of Detroit. Zielinski, owner of the Westwood Construction co., enjoys all outdoor sports. Mrs. Zielinski prefers home-making, and sewing is her favorite hobby. The Zielinskis are now settled at 1642 Graefield road.

Graefield extends a welcome to Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Norton and their daughter, six-year-old Susan. Formerly of Cleveland, but natives of Massachusetts, the Nortons are now living at 1652 Graefield road. Norton who is a comptroller for the Chrysler Corp., attended the Bentley school of accounting and business, enjoys golf, and gardening. Mrs. Norton also likes to golf and

Mrs. Ernest Blasdel, caretaker of the west-end of the Graefield area, has requested that parents please cooperate in teaching their children to respect other people's property.

Branches are being broken from shrubbery. Mrs. Blasdel declared, "and landscaping destroyed. Graefield is attractive, so let's keep it that way."

SHARON LEE STANTON

Troth Announced At Family Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Newell Stanton of Pilgrim road have announced the engagement of their daughter, Sharon Lee, to Robert Watson Woodrow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woodrow of Aurora, Ill. The troth was told at a family dinner last month on the 20th wedding anniversary of the bride-elect's parents.

The couple attended Valparaiso university. Robert was graduated in May and Sharon will be a sophomore in the fall.
